Fifth Skill Convocation Ceremony held at ITI Dollygunj; Meritorious Trainees felicitated

Tourism, Digital Technology and Emerging Opportunities to boost employment

The Resolve of Viksit Bharat 2047 can be realised only through Skill Development

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 21

The Fifth Skill Convocation Ceremony was organised today at the Government Industrial Training Institute (ITI), Dollygunj, Sri Vijaya Puram. The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Dr. Dinesh Sharma, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor distributed certificates to the trainees who had successfully completed their training under the Crafts Instructor Training Scheme and Craftsmen Training Scheme. He also felicitated meritorious students, toppers and award winners and wished them a bright future. On the occasion, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor also inaugurated an exhibition set up by trainees of 22 vocational courses.

Addressing the gathering, he expressed his views on the important role of skill development, technical proficiency and vocational training in empowering youth and building an Atmanirbhar Bharat. The programme also featured the live telecast of the address being delivered by the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, to the youth of the country from Lucknow.

In his address, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor said that the success of any institution lies in ensuring that its youth are connected with employment opportunities. He stated that ITI Dollygunj receives applications in excess of its available seats, which reflects the quality of training imparted by the Institute. He informed that training is being imparted to youth in around 22 trades across the Islands and that the capacity under the Craftsmen Training Scheme has increased from 200 to 1,416 seats.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor stated that a convocation ceremony does not mark the end of education but rather the beginning of a new professional journey. Calling upon the trainees to uphold the dignity of labour, discipline, honesty and dedication, he informed that the youth of the Islands had won 13 medals at the regional level and four medals at the national level in the IndiaSkills Competition. He emphasised that providing employment opportunities to youth through skill development would help realise the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047 envisioned by the Hon'ble Prime Minister.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor said that wide-ranging employment opportunities would emerge in the coming years in tourism, hospitality, transportation, construction and technical services. In the era of Artificial Intelligence (AI), digital technology and renewable energy, he stressed that youth must continuously upgrade their skills. Highlighting the expansion of digital connectivity, he informed that, besides Chennai, work is also in progress for an alternative submarine cable connectivity from Puri in Odisha.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor further stated that various development projects in Car Nicobar, Great Nicobar, Campbell Bay and other areas would generate extensive employment opportunities. The Administration is making efforts to ensure that no youth remains unemployed. He also appreciated the efforts of the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, for consistently raising issues concerning the development of the Islands and public amenities.

In the end, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor shared an inspiring anecdote from his student life and advised the trainees to cherish their certificates and awards as a source of inspiration. He expressed confidence that skilled and empowered youth would make a significant contribution towards realising the vision of Viksit Bharat by 2047.

The ceremony was attended by the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray; Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, Ms. Purva Garg; Secretary, Labour, Employment and Training Department, Ms. Vandana Rao, Superintendent of Police, SA, Ms. Shweta Sugathan; Principal, ITI Dollygunj, Shri Venkatesh C.H. besides officers, teachers, trainees and parents, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Hon'ble Member of Parliament of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, today paid a courtesy visit to the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram, and discussed local issues. Directions were issued for their early resolution.

Shri Rajesh Rai, Chairman and Managing Director of ITI Limited, India paid a courtesy visit to the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram. During the meeting, he was urged to expedite the completion of the work of connecting the remaining three Tribal Councils with internet connectivity under the Revised BharatNet Programme. Thereafter, emphasis was laid on connecting every school with Smart Class facilities, as well as Panchayats, Police Stations and Hospitals, through BharatNet. A fruitful discussion was also held on expediting the work of the next phase of individual internet connections being implemented by BSNL.

The Up-Adhyaksh, Zilla Parishad, South Andaman, Shri Asha Manja Halder; former Pradhan, Shri Gopal Ganguly; Shri Ravi Pujari of Shri Balaji Temple, Salasar, Rajasthan; and Chairperson, SVPMC, Smt. M. Vasantha, today paid a courtesy visit to the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram.

World Fisheries Day celebrated at Fisheries Training Centre, Marine Hill

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 21

World Fisheries Day 2026 was celebrated at Fisheries Training Centre, Marine Hill today, with the participation of fishermen, fish traders, representatives of fishermen associations, fisheries cooperative societies and officials of the Department of Fisheries. The programme was graced by Smt. Pallavi Sarkar, IAS, Secretary (Fisheries), as the chief guest, Shri Nilesh Nishikant Gurav, Director of Fisheries as the guest of honour.

Addressing the gathering, the Secretary (Fisheries) underscored the importance of participatory planning in the development of the fisheries sector. She emphasized that fishermen and other stakeholders must be actively consulted and involved in the formulation of developmental plans and programmes so that the initiatives undertaken by the Administration are need-based, practical and aligned with the actual requirements of the fishing community.

During the programme, the Department of Fisheries highlighted various developmental initiatives and ongoing projects being undertaken by the A&N Administration for the holistic development of the fisheries sector, with emphasis on strengthening fisheries infrastructure and improving facilities for the fishing community.

An interactive session was also held, during which representatives of fishermen associations and other stakeholders shared their concerns and suggestions on various issues relating to fishermen's welfare, infrastructure development, insurance coverage and implementation of the Group Accident Insurance Scheme. The Secretary (Fisheries) interacted with the participants and heard their views and suggestions.

The celebration provided an important platform for constructive dialogue between the Administration and fisheries stakeholders, reaffirming the importance of collaborative efforts, stakeholder participation and need-based interventions for sustainable growth of the fisheries sector in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, a press release from Directorate of Fisheries said.

Six-Day Training on Culinary Skills, Presentation & Hygiene for Homestay Operators concludes

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 21

The six-day Training and Certification Programme on "Culinary Skills, Presentation & Hygiene" for Homestay Operators concluded today with a valedictory session at the QTK Lab, Hotel Management Department, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Institute of Technology (DBRAIT), Dollygunj. Organized by the Directorate of Tourism, Andaman & Nicobar Administration, in association with the Institute of Hotel Management, Catering Technology and Applied Nutrition (IHM), Mumbai, under the Raising and Accelerating MSME Performance (RAMP) Scheme, the training was conducted from November 16 to 21, 2026.

The sessions were conducted by Renowned Lecturer-cum-Chef Shri Amol Balkawade from IHM, Mumbai. The programme aimed to equip existing and aspiring homestay operators, along with their staff, with practical culinary knowledge and professional food service standards. Over the six days, participants underwent hands-on training and interactive sessions covering essential aspects of food preparation, plating and presentation, kitchen hygiene, and pantry management. Key modules included designing balanced, nutritious menus using local Andaman produce and Ayurvedic principles, food costing and portion control to minimize wastage and protect profit margins, and decoding food labels, allergen warnings, and FSSAI safety standards suited to humid island conditions. Participants also received practical demonstrations on preparing international desserts, base gravies, and sauces.

Addressing the gathering during the valedictory session, Ms. Akanchha Singh, IAS, Director (Tourism), emphasized that homestay operators are in direct contact with tourists, and their conduct and hospitality directly reflect the image of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands. She noted that positive guest experiences where visitors appreciate both the beauty of the islands and the warmth of the local people generate invaluable word-of-mouth publicity that helps market the destination globally. Urging the participants to translate their newly acquired skills into daily practice, she also encouraged them to train and upskill their respective staff members across all facets of homestay operations to ensure consistent service quality.

Following the final assessment, top performers Ms. Shashita, Ms. Sandhya Kumari, and Shabnam Bibi were awarded professional chef knives as prizes by Lecturer-cum-Chef Shri Amol Balkawade. The valedictory session concluded with the distribution of certificates to the participating homestay operators and staff, marking another milestone in the Directorate's ongoing efforts under the RAMP Scheme to strengthen grassroots tourism entrepreneurship and elevate hospitality standards across the archipelago, a press release from Tourism Deptt. said.
