Early findings of offshore oil exploration in Andamans indicate hydrocarbon potential: Hon'ble Lt. Governor

Global energy majors are showing interest in potential joint ventures.

The Administration is also focusing on tourism development, expanding helicopter and seaplane services, and positioning the islands as a premier scuba diving destination

Admiral D K Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands and Vice-Chairman, Islands Development Agency has said that the offshore oil exploration in the archipelago has gained momentum after decades of inactivity, with early findings indicating promising hydrocarbon potential.

In an interview with PTL, he said the recent exploratory drilling in the Andaman Basin has generated optimism.

"At the Sri Vijaya Puram-2 exploratory well, drilling by Oil India Limited (OIL) has indicated a gas find with around 87 per cent methane content, alongside another zone with a high probability of crude oil presence. Data validation and commercial viability assessments are currently underway," he said.

"The Andaman Basin has attracted strong interest ahead of upcoming auction rounds for oil blocks, with several global energy majors in discussions with the Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) and the OIL for potential joint ventures. These collaborations are expected to bring in not just investment, but also advanced technology and specialised equipment required for deep-sea exploration in the region," Hon'ble Lt. Governor added.

Highlighting the untapped potential of the region, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor noted that despite accounting for nearly one-third of India's Exclusive Economic Zone and over a quarter of its coastline, offshore exploration had remained largely absent for the first six to seven decades after Independence, as surrounding waters were designated

"no-go zones". The issue was subsequently taken up with the Islands Development Agency, paving the way for exploration activities.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor said there is growing optimism about the basin's long-term potential, with some estimates likening it to large global discoveries, making it a "space to watch" in India's energy landscape.

In the hospitality sector, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor said the administration has awarded four major projects to firms under the public-private partnership (PPP) model.

"The response from investors has been strong, and even greater interest is being shown for upcoming projects," he said.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor said the administration is expanding helicopter services to further strengthen inter-island connectivity.

Alongside augmenting the Pawan Hans fleet, expressions of interest have been floated for private operators to run licensed routes, drawing significant industry response, he said.

"With 836 pristine islands, tourism holds immense potential, and improving connectivity has been prioritised. Seaplane operations have completed trial runs and, in the first phase, will connect Sri Vijaya Puram with Long Island, Swaraj Dweep, Shaheed Dweep and Little Andaman. The Administration aims to develop the region into a major seaplane hub for the Indian Ocean, and eventually the wider Indo-Pacific region," he said.

strengths, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor said the region has vast potential for scuba diving and underwater tourism.

Plans are afoot to position the Andaman and Nicobar Islands as a premier scuba diving destination in the Indo-Pacific region, Hon'ble Lt. Governor said. On the power front, he outlined a major transition towards clean and sustainable energy. "A decade ago, nearly 90 per cent of the islands' power generation relied on diesel, with only about 10 per cent coming from renewable sources such as solar and limited hydroelectric capacity. However, over the past 10 years, the share of diesel has reduced to around 70 per cent, while solar energy has increased to approximately 25 per cent," he said.

Looking ahead, the Administration aims to cut diesel dependence to single digits -- around 8 per cent -- within the next three years. Solar power is projected to rise sharply to 70 per cent, with around 18 per cent of energy needs expected to be met through LNG-based generation, Hon'ble Lt. Governor said.

He said proposals are also under examination for a high-voltage direct current (HVDC) undersea cable to connect the islands with the mainland grid, enabling greater energy stability.

The Administration has also suggested exploring small modular nuclear reactors for high-demand zones such as Great Nicobar, where major infrastructure projects are being planned, he added.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor said the archipelago is among India's most strategically significant and geographically expansive territories.

"While the islands may have a small population, their landmass surpasses that of several mainland Indian states. In fact, the combined land area of island nations such as the Maldives, Mauritius and Seychelles are smaller compared to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The archipelago is the gateway to the Indo-Pacific," he added. (Source: <https://energy.economicstimes.indiatimes.com/>)

A TRIBUTE TO OUR BROTHERS: S.NEPOLEON & K.DASS ON THEIR SUPERANNUATION

Shri S.Nepoleon

Shri K. Dass

"No road is too long in the company of a good friend."

As S.Nepoleon, Seacunny, Directorate of Shipping Services

(A&N Admn.) and K.Dass, Headmaster, Directorate of Education (A&N Admn.) embark on their well-deserved retirement on May 2026, we look back at a friendship that defines a lifetime. Our bond was forged in a simpler time-an era without the hum of televisions or the distraction of mobile phones.

We remember the days when our only entertainment was the spirit of a Kabaddi match, the freedom of Cycling through winding paths and the cooling waters of our holiday's Swims. Those youthful adventures turned us from schoolmates into brothers, creating an unwavering bond that has stood the test of time.

Now, as you reach your superannuation, we look forward to reclaiming that time together. Here's to many more sunset talks and walks down memory lane. May this new phase bring you and your family immense joy, robust health and the fulfillment of every dream.

With love and admiration.
