A&N Administration revises transport & wage loss compensation guidelines under AB-PMJAY

Air travel facility expanded; wage loss compensation extended to all eligible beneficiaries

Sri Vijaya Puram, Aug. 31
The Andaman & Nicobar Administration has revised the Transport and Wage Loss Compensation Guidelines under the Ayushman Bharat Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (AB-PMJAY) with the approval of the Governing Body of the State Health Society, A&N Islands. The revised provisions have been made effective w.e.f. 01.08.2026. The revised guidelines have been introduced with the objective of facilitating beneficiaries referred from the Islands to empanelled hospitals in mainland India for specialised medical treatment. The major revised provisions are as follows:
1. Air Travel Facility for Referred Patients
All patients referred from GB Pant Hospital, Sri Vijaya Puram, under AB-PMJAY for treatment at empanelled hospitals in mainland India shall now be permitted to travel by air in Economy Class, subject to the applicable provisions of the revised guidelines. Reimbursement towards air travel shall be admissible subject to a maximum ceiling of Rs.40,000/- for the onward and return journey for the patient and one attendant.

2. Cashless Air Travel Arrangement for Stretcher Cases
For patients referred by air as stretcher cases, the State Health Agency (SHA) shall arrange air tickets for the patient and one attendant on a cashless basis, subject to the applicable guidelines. In this regard, the SHA has taken up the matter with Balmer Lawrie & Co. Ltd. for facilitating air tickets for stretcher cases. The Department proposes to maintain an advance deposit of Rs.10 lakh with the agency for this purpose. Confirmation from the agency in this regard is awaited.
3. Wage Loss Compensation Extended to All Eligible AB-PMJAY Beneficiaries
The benefit of wage loss compensation has been extended to all eligible AB-PMJAY beneficiaries. Eligible beneficiaries shall be entitled to wage loss compensation at the rate of Rs.1,000/- per day for a maximum period of 20 days, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed under the revised guidelines. Earlier, the benefit was restricted to beneficiaries covered under the SECC category. The complete revised Transport and Wage Loss Compensation Guidelines are available on the official website of the Directorate of Health Services, A&N Administration, a press release from DHS said.

functioning of the Archives and the importance of systematic preservation, management and digitization of historical and administrative records. The programme was designed to bridge the gap between academic learning and practical experience in the field of archival management.

As per the internship policy, considering the dedication, commitment and satisfactory performance demonstrated by the interns of the first batch during the initial period, the period of internship has been extended for a further three months by the Secretary (Archives). The extension will provide the interns with additional opportunities to deepen their practical knowledge and gain further hands-on experience in various archival activities.

On successful completion of the internship, the Andaman & Nicobar Archives, Secretariat, issued a Certificate of Internship recognizing the satisfactory conduct, performance and participation of the interns during the programme.

The initiative reflects the commitment of the Andaman & Nicobar Archives towards capacity building, promotion of archival awareness and providing practical learning opportunities to students and young graduates of History and related disciplines. Such internship programmes are intended to encourage young learners to appreciate the significance of documentary heritage and develop an interest in archival research, preservation and digital documentation.

The Archives proposes to continue and strengthen such academic and internship initiatives in the future, thereby creating greater opportunities for students and researchers to gain practical exposure to the preservation, management and digitization of the documentary heritage of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, a press release from Assistant Secretary (Archives) said.

Foreigners Registration Officer, South Andaman District. The programme is being conducted with the support of experienced officers from the Bureau of Immigration (BoI), Chennai, with a specific focus on imparting practical and operational knowledge to police personnel involved in seaport immigration duties.

Speaking at the inaugural session, the Superintendent of Police emphasized that effective handling of immigration-related responsibilities requires not only knowledge of rules and procedures but also practical understanding, professional competence and coordinated field-level execution. She stressed the importance of ensuring that immigration formalities involving international passengers, foreign crew members and vessels are carried out in a systematic, efficient, uniform and legally compliant manner. A total of 20 police personnel from North & Middle Andaman and Nicobar Districts, along with personnel of the Immigration & Foreigners Branch, South Andaman District, are participating in the training.

The key features of this programme is its emphasis on hands-on learning rather than merely theoretical instruction, a press release from SP, SA said.

Panchayat staff, Persons with Disabilities (PwDs), caregivers and general public.

During the sessions, the State Coordinator (UDID), DSW, sensitized the participants about the UDID Scheme, its importance and benefits, disability certification, registration and renewal procedures, and the online application process. Information was also provided regarding the medical assessment and Medical Board process required for UDID certification. Following the awareness sessions, UDID registration and renewal were facilitated for eligible PwDs, including persons applying for the first time and existing beneficiaries requiring renewal of their UDID Cards. Beneficiaries were guided through the application process and informed about the subsequent medical assessment requirements.

The initiative is part of the Directorate of Social Welfare's efforts to improve the coverage, accessibility and timely facilitation of UDID services, particularly for Persons with Disabilities residing in areas where access to departmental offices and related services may be comparatively difficult. Through such awareness and facilitation programmes, the Directorate aims to ensure that eligible PwDs are able to obtain or renew their UDID Cards and consequently access various Government schemes, benefits and services available to them, a press release from DSW said.
