Rashtriya Ekta Diwas celebrated in Isles LG, MP flag off 'Run for Unity' from Netaji Stadium

Port Blair, Oct.31

The entire Nation celebrated Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (National Unity Day) today with befitting programmes, to mark the 140th birth anniversary of the Iron Man of India, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the first Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister of Independent India, who played pivotal role in the freedom struggle of the country. These Islands also celebrated National Unity Day with the rest of the country today.

To mark the occasion, a 'Run for Unity' was organised by the Directorate of Sports and Youth Affairs here this morning. The Lt. Governor, Lt. Gen. A K Singh (Retd.), chief guest of the function and the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray jointly flagged off the Run from the historic Netaji Stadium. The Lt. Governor administered the Rashtriya Ekta Diwas pledge to the participants on the occasion. The Lt. Governor and the Member of Parliament also joined the Run.

The Adhyaksha, Zilla Parishad, South Andaman, Smt. Minati Biswas, Chairperson PBMC, Smt. Sheela Singh, senior officers of the Administration and about 1000 people from all walks of life, young and old, men and women alike, participated in the 'Run for Unity'. (Contd. on last page)

MP clarifies allegations levelled by a section of media

Staff Reporter,
Port Blair, Oct 31

The Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray has clarified about the allegations levelled by a section of media describing him as "Andaman's most expensive MP", who claims over Rs. 1 crore as travel expense. Shri Ray, while addressing a press conference at MP Bhawan this evening, stated that the release of the Parliamentary Secretariat on expenditure with regard to MPs in public domain from time to time is routine matter. Shri Ray said that allegations levelled on him aims at maligning his image.

Shri Ray, while giving facts relating to travel expenditure of MPs to media, said that for travel expenses, the MPs are governed under Act of Parliament and therefore they are entitled for executive class or first class air journey. This Act provides special dispensation for entitlement for MPs of A & N Island Constituency and Lakshadweep Constituency to avail flights along with companion from Port Blair to Delhi via Chennai or Kolkata anytime other than session/committee meetings due to the fact that both the UTs are not connected by road or rail links.

Shri Ray further informed that he is also a Member in Parliamentary Committees such as Department related Parliamentary Standing Committee on Home Affairs (RS), Committee on Paper Laid on the tables (LS), Consultative Committee on Culture and Tourism and North East Region Hindi Committee and attended meetings of the Committees, participated in tours of the Committees and attended Parliament sessions during

LG lays foundation stone for ANCOL

Reiterates commitment of Administration & elected representatives towards providing quality education to Isles' students

Calls upon youth to look at future with hope of success & joy

Port Blair, Oct. 31

The Andaman College (ANCOL) will soon have its own building, that too in a picturesque location at Chakkargaon here, as the Lt. Governor, Lt. Gen A.K. Singh (Retd.) today laid the foundation stone for the new building of ANCOL. The Lt Governor, as the chief guest, unveiled the plaque marking the foundation stone laying ceremony for the project at a function held at the site at Chakkargaon. He also inspected the layout plan of the new building.

The function was also graced by the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, the Adhyaksha, Zila Parishad, South Andaman, Smt. Minati Biswas, Chairperson PBMC, Smt. Sheela Singh. The Chief Secretary (i/c), A&N Administration, Shri Raajiv Yaduvanshi, other elected members of civic body and Panchayati Raj Institutions, senior officers of the Administration, students of the College, proud parents and a good gathering of general public were part of this auspicious ceremony.

Addressing the gathering on the occasion, the Lt. Governor highlighted that education is the most important issue for the entire nation today and the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi also lays great emphasis on education of the children, leading to progress of the entire nation.

The A&N Administration too, since the last two years, has been focusing more on education, and as part of this endeavour, efforts are being made to ensure that our children are provided quality education and good infrastructure facilities in schools, said the Lt. Governor. "The Islands are the first in the country to provide separate toilets for girls & boys and it will be ensured that better toilet facilities are available in all the schools", he added.

The Lt Governor stated that starting the college (ANCOL), was possible as the Administration was determined to go ahead with the project without any delay, and, as a result, ANCOL started functioning from the premises of Haddo School (Hindi Medium) in July 2014. The Lt. Governor thanked the students studying in Haddo School at that time, and their parents, who voluntarily gave Haddo school for starting ANCOL, while the APWD gave it a facelift immediately. Responding to the demand made by the MP, the Lt Governor directed the Principle Secy. (Education) to prepare a plan within a week to see the possibilities of starting Smart Classes in a phased manner and to make use of V-Sat facilities to start tele- education in Schools.

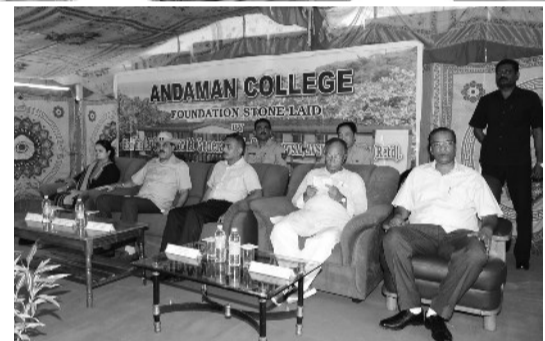

About the new upcoming building of ANCOL, the Lt Governor stated that this new college will be one of the best colleges in the Islands due to its picturesque location. "ANCOL is not only for Port Blair but has been created for the students of the entire Islands", he said. The Lt. Governor also mentioned that JNRM, Port Blair and MGGC, Mayabunder will be further upgraded/improved in all aspects. He also directed the concerned authorities to look into the possibilities of starting science stream at Mayabunder College.

The Lt. Governor also called for ensuring quality of education for the students of the Islands so that they are able to compete with their counterparts on the mainland and prove themselves. "We have a large number of committed and qualified teachers who must find motivation to deliver the best for the betterment of the students", he said adding that the Education Department and its faculty are responsible for ensuring quality education to students.

The Lt Governor also informed the gathering about the proposal for creating a University for Andaman & Nicobar Islands and also mentioned that preliminary works for starting a Law College in these Islands have already begun. The Lt. Governor also mentioned that in due course, a Paramedic Institute, under the Medical College will be opened here.

Turning to the youth of the Islands, the Lt. Governor said that the A&N Administration, all elected representatives are focussed to give them a right platform and quality education so that they grow up into vibrant persons and good citizens of the country. He called upon the youth to work from the hope of success and not for fear of failure. "Live for hope, not despair. We must look at the future with hope of success and joy", said the Lt. Governor in his message to Isles' youth.

The Lt. Governor concluded by complementing the team of the Education Department for their hard work in materializing the dream of ANCOL, APWD team for their support in coming up with a world class construction of this College building. The Lt. Governor also dedicated the College (ANCOL), to the citizens of the A&N Islands.

In his address on the occasion, the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray wholeheartedly praised the Lt Governor for starting the ANCOL and laying the foundation for the new building. "The credit for opening of this College in such a short span of time goes undoubtedly to the Lt. Governor", said the MP. He said that the ANCOL, started under the Rashtriya Uchchar Shiksha Abhiyan (RUSA) is a Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Ministry of Human Resource Development aiming at providing strategic funding to eligible states for creating higher educational institutions. Under this, he said, two third funds will be met by the Govt of India and Administration has to provide one third amount for the project.

Referring to 'Smart Class', a dream of the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, the MP urged the

WTA Finals: Sania-Hingis overpower Chan sisters to reach 10th final of 2015

Singapore, Oct 31
Sania Mirza and Martina Hingis powered past Chinese Taipei's Chan Hao-Ching and Chan Yung-Jan 6-4, 6-2 to reach their 10th final of the year together at the Women's Tennis Association's (WTA) Finals here on Saturday. Sania-Martina improved their winning streak to 21 matches with the win. Their last loss was against the Chan sisters in the semi-finals at Cincinnati. File picture of Sania Mirza and Martina Hingis. The No.3-seeded Taiwanese went up 3-1 in the first set but the No.1-seeded Indo-Swiss duo reeled off 11 of the next 14 games to completely run away with the match.
"On the court I feel very fortunate to have Sania on my side because she's an incredibly positive person," Martina said after the match on Saturday.
"When I get myself down, I'm not really a morning person, so she was out there and kept fighting and kept keeping me up there."

That's why we were able to come back in the first set."
"Once I felt better, that's when everything started to click. They're a great team, so they've always come out strong in the past six matches that we played them. And they know how to play against us."
"We came out with a strategy against them. It's very different to what we played against players like yesterday who have more power, different strategy," Sania said.
"We kind of have to stick to our guns, stick to what we have planned. We have to trust our abilities. That's what really takes us through a lot of the times, is that trust in each other's ability. We know sooner or later we're going to break."
"It happened at 3-2. If it didn't happen there, we would still keep fighting to make it happen."
Sania-Martina have won eight titles together this year.

Administration to introduce Smart Classes in schools of these islands soon. To begin with, smart classes should be started in streams such as Maths, English and Science initially, he added.
The MP requested the Administration to start tele- education by utilising V- Satellite facilities in Isles. Citing that many schools are having V-Sat facility, the MP urged the Education Department to start Tele- Education from Boys and Rabindra Bangla Schools and later cover other schools as well. The MP also urged the Administration to make a strong proposal for setting up of 'Andaman & Nicobar University' with the Central Govt. He also opined that more students should be admitted in ANCOL. The MP also asked the Administration for making regular appointments of lecturers in ANCOL through UPSC selection as there exists a good number of well qualified teachers in these Islands.
Earlier, welcoming the chief guest and others, the Principle Secretary (Education), Shri Raajiv Yaduvanshi stated that construction of this College at this beautiful location at Chakkargaon has been possible following the decision of the Lt. Governor in this direction. He thanked the APWD for carrying out the construction work and mentioned that the construction will be completed by early 2016. He also highlighted about the Model College Scheme under RUSA of the Ministry of HRD, under which the College will come up. Out of the total cost of Rs.12 crore of the College building, Rs.8 crore is being provided by MHRD while Rs.4 crore has been provided by the A&N Administration. The College has 360 students at present and offers courses in 8 different streams, he said. The students of ANCOL presented a welcome song befitting the occasion. The function concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by the Secretary Education, Ms Tanvi Garg.
