India, Singapore to strengthen cooperation in countering threats of rising terrorism

New Delhi, Oct 4
India and Singapore today decided to strengthen cooperation in countering threats of rising terrorism. Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi termed cross-border terrorism and increasing radicalisation as grave challenges that endanger the very fabric of the two societies. Shri Modi, who held comprehensive talks with visiting Singapore Prime Minister Mr Lee Hsien Loong on ways to enhance cooperation in key sectors including trade and investment, said defence and security cooperation is a key pillar of strategic partnership between the two countries. Addressing a joint press meet, Mr Lee condemned terrorism and offered condolences to the families of the soldiers who were martyred in the Uri attack in Jammu and Kashmir. Shri Modi also noted that keeping the sea lanes of communication open and respect for international legal order of seas and oceans are a shared priority of the two maritime nations. The two countries also inked three pacts including the one dealing with intellectual property rights to facilitate greater business to business exchanges and collaborations. Describing trade and investment as bedrock of bilateral relationship, Shri Modi said India has embarked on a path of strong economic growth and transformation and in this journey, it regards Singapore as a key partner. Agreeing to expedite the second review of Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement, the two leaders also welcomed the issuance of corporate Rupee bonds in Singapore which was a step forward in mobilising capital for India's large infrastructure development needs. The two countries also decided to set up a Finance Dialogue, to be co-chaired by Finance Minister Shri Arun Jaitley and Deputy Prime Minister Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam of Singapore, to further strengthen bilateral trade and economic ties.

Revenue camp court...
Commissioner, accompanied by the Pradhan and Block Development Officer, Ferrargunj and MGNREGA team inspected a site identified for irrigation project at Wandoor village and directed the concerned officials to initiate action for early commencement of the project. The Pradhan, Gram Panchayat, Wandoor, Panchayat Samiti Member, Up Pradhan and other PRI representatives expressed their happiness over the successful conduct of such a revenue-camp court in the Gram Panchayat. Due to heavy rains and subsequent releasing of water from Dhanikhari Dam, some parts of Nayashahar and Dhanikhari villages were inundated. Some residential houses were also flooded and the District Administration made immediate arrangements for shifting the affected families to the nearby school at Nayashahar and other suitable locations in coordination with the Gram Panchayat, Guptapara. Earlier, Shri Ram Bala, Pradhan, Gram Panchayat, Wandoor welcomed the Revenue team and apprised the DC of the various issues concerning the residents. He pointed out that if the proposed sluice-gates are built, much of the submerged land can be reclaimed and put to agricultural use and other activities, a communication from the Tehsildar, Ferrargunj said.
