South Andaman Police strengthens community outreach through awareness programmes across the district

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 7
As part of the "Nasha Mukta Bharat, Khushhaal Bharat" campaign, South Andaman Police conducted a series of anti-drug awareness programmes across the district to educate the public on the harmful effects of substance abuse and encourage community participation in creating a drug-free society.

PS Aberdeen and PS Pahargaon organized awareness programmes at Junglighth, Ratnam Market, Garacharma and Prothrapur respectively while OP R.K. Pur conducted similar programmes at R.K. Pur Vegetable Market and V.K. Pur Bazaar, sensitizing residents, shopkeepers, and youth on the physical, mental, social and legal consequences of drug abuse. PS Chatham carried out anti-drug awareness programmes at Haddo, Chatham Bridge, Kali Maatha Mandir, and Buniyadabad Junction, educating participants on the ill effects of narcotic substances and the importance of supporting police efforts to curb drug-related offences.

PS Humfrygunj conducted awareness programmes at Manglutan Playground, while PS Ograbraj organized similar programmes at Chouldari Market and Ferrargunj Market. PS Shaheed Dweep organized awareness programmes at Neil Kendra Market while at Swaraj Dweep, awareness programmes were conducted at Govind Nagar No. 3, Vijay Nagar No. 5, and Kala Pathar Village.

Through these sustained awareness initiatives, South Andaman Police continues to strengthen police-public partnership in the fight against drug abuse. Citizens have been urged to report any information related to narcotics through the MANAS Helpline - 1933, Police Emergency Helpline - 112, or WhatsApp No. 9531856080. The identity of informants will be kept strictly confidential, a press release from SP (SA) said.
