Tourism Department invites EOIs for operation of Houseboats in A&N Islands

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 7
The Department of Tourism, Andaman and Nicobar Administration, has invited Expression of Interest (EOI) from reputed and experienced operators for starting operation of houseboats in Andaman and Nicobar Islands on pre-decided routes.

The Andaman and Nicobar Islands, a Union Territory of India, is a premier tourist destination known for its pristine beaches, coral reefs, and lush forests. The Department of Tourism, Andaman and Nicobar Administration, aims to promote tourism in the islands and provide unique experiences to visitors. The floral and faunal diversity of the islands is one of the distinct and richest in the country. Wetlands and mangrove creeks are ecologically important ecosystems and popular tourist attractions.

Houseboats have been utilized for centuries across the globe for both residential and commercial purposes. Over time, this traditional use has evolved into a unique form of tourism, offering visitors immersive scenic and cultural experiences, especially in tranquil settings such as backwaters, lakes, and rivers. Countries such as India (Kerala and Kashmir), the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, France, and Australia are prominent destinations for houseboat tourism. European nations, in particular, have a rich tradition of houseboat living and travel along canals, combining luxury, history, and culinary tourism.

In India, houseboat tourism is primarily concentrated in Kerala, Jammu & Kashmir, and parts of the North Eastern region (such as Assam and Manipur). Houseboats hold immense potential to promote eco-tourism, rural tourism, and cultural tourism.

Houseboat tourism in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands will offer a captivating and immersive experience in one of India's most pristine and breathtaking destinations. Nestled in the Bay of Bengal, this archipelago boasts stunning landscapes, turquoise waters, and rich biodiversity, making it an ideal setting for houseboat adventures. Exploring the islands on a houseboat will allow the tourists to witness the mesmerizing beauty of the archipelago at a relaxed pace. They can cruise through the emerald waters, meander along the scenic backwaters, and soak in the panoramic views of pristine beaches and dense exotic mangroves creeks.

Houseboat tours in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands can be customized based on the preferences and duration of stay of tourists. One can opt for day trips, overnight stays, or even multi-day cruises to fully immerse in the tranquillity of the archipelago.
