AADHAAR entry of patients at G B Pant Hospital; ANIMS clarifies

Port Blair, Mar 9

A separate counter is maintained for revisiting patients, where the previously issued registration number or patients phone number or AADHAAR number is sufficient to trace a previous patient visit. Celebrating Women's Day

In search for a change in mindset

Another year of Women's Day (8th March) rolled by. The day was celebrated with vigour and enthusiasm in our Islands too. Colourful and vibrant hoardings sending out beautiful messages, papers roaring aloud for awareness at every corner of this archipelago, women's organizations, NGOs leaving no stone unturned to draw attention besides projecting their achievements towards women of the Islands.

Yes, Women's Day is dedicated to all wonderful women of the world and the achievements made by them on various fields by projecting the progressive phase of the 21st century women, but we must realise that only a handful of them cannot portray progress. On the other hand, till date, in India, we hear and see news of female foetuses being wrapped and thrown in rivers and garbages or torn into pieces by dogs, This is still the fate of women in India, she is worn off her right to be born into this world, forget about her growth and prosperity.

Till today, the Indian society wants a boy to complete the family. The thought that a girl cannot complete a family, paralysis the society towards spirit of womanhood and adding to it is the worst irony of Indian society, blind myths and dogmas retires the family planning methods to rest, until a boy arrives in the family, it doesn't matter even if he is the 4th or 5th born in line to the girls already existing in the family. The one thing that matters is that when a boy is born into the family, it becomes a proud moment for all and then we blame the government for increasing prices, rising unemployment and most importantly rising population.

I believe, we as a society are responsible for all sorts of crime or violence, be it molestation or rape cases. A change has to begin from home, and it is we, the women first, who are responsible for this change to happen. Teach your boys how to respect women in society, how to behave towards their sisters at home, to girls in schools, towards the women counterparts in office and most importantly, to value them as their equal gender and not as weaker sex or deprived or exploitable ones.

A herculean responsibility lies on all the mothers of the nation towards sowing the seed of gender equality in the minds of their sons and it has to be done by the mothers first and then the family, thereby the change will start from the family and then moves towards society and then only the country will develop.

According to me, every year on the eve of Women's Day, each of these societal issues has to be chosen and an oath has to be taken to bring a change for good besides ensuring that Women's day can be celebrated in a more meaningful and benefitting manner.

Skipper Virat Kohli, spin ace Ravichandran Ashwin bag top honours in BCCI Awards Night

Bengaluru, Mar 9
Indian captain Virat Kohli and spin ace Ravichandran Ashwin were tonight honoured for their phenomenal run of form through the season in the BCCI Awards Night 2017 here. Kohli won the Polly Umrigar award for best international player of 2015/16, becoming the first player to get the award three times. Much like his skipper, Ashwin too has been on a record-breaking spree in the ongoing season, winning the CK Nayudu award for his performance in the West Indies in 2016. He picked up 17 wickets in four Tests, including a haul of 7/83 in North Sound. On receiving the award, Kohli said, "It's been quite unbelievable the last 10 to 12 months. I am not bothered who thinks what. This is the attitude in dressing room. We learn to win together and lose together. I wanted to be the best in all formats. I saw it as an opportunity and I decided to follow a path and the whole team believed it." Former India wicketkeeper Farooq Engineer, who delivered the MAK Pataudi lecture, had nothing but only praise for the legendary captain. Cricket Australia CEO James Sutherland was also present on the occasion. Engineer urged everyone to know and respect the contributions made by Pataudi to Indian cricket, saying that the Tiger was "still a world-class player despite losing one eye". The awards night was being held a day after India's win series-levelling win over Australia in the second Test of the ongoing four-match series.

About Health Sector, the Lt. Governor remarked that Primary Health Centers in the Islands are very good and well maintained. He opined that the PHCs in the Islands are far better than those in North India including Delhi. He said the Islands are lacking super specialty treatment facility and many initiatives have been taken by the Administration to augment the health sector. He disclosed that, by June 1, this year, a Cath Lab will be inaugurated at G. B. Pant Hospital which will cater to all heart related ailments. Similarly, to cater to orthopedic related ailment, facilities for spinal surgery, knee/ hip replacement surgery will be made available from June 1 at GB. Pant Hospital. The target of the Administration is to ensure that Islanders are provided with quality health care facilities so that the process of going to mainland for treating such diseases can be done away with, said the Lt. Governor.

The Lt. Governor complimented the APWD team for successful completion of the project, despite various hamstrings. The Lt. Governor also called upon the people to come forward and express their grievances, if any, either to the Officers of the Administration or directly to him for mitigating the issues.

In his welcome address, the Principal Secretary (APWD), Shri Raajiv Yaduvanshi stated that the work for the project began in the year 2013 but was delayed due to cyclone Lehar which struck the Islands and unavailability of quarry materials. He expressed satisfaction that despite the delay, the project was completed with the allocated fund of Rs. 2.47 crore. Elaborating on the project, he said the water treatment plant has the facility of one sedimentation tank, five slow sand filter units each having a capacity of 98000 litres, water reservoir having the capacity of 2.25 lakh litres, one pumping station and a Laboratory. The filter units were completed in June 2016 and laying of pipelines was completed in December 2016.

He said, the source of water for the plant is Tirur Nallah which has an average discharge of 20 lakh litres per day during rainy season and about 2.5 lakh litres per day during summer season. The water treatment plant will provide treated water to a population of 3300 people of eight villages viz. nearby areas of Tirur, Collinpur, Herpetabad, Temple Myo, Manpur, Kurmadera, Lamba khadi, Kushiram khari, he said. He informed that APWD has planned for redistribution of water system in various villages and hence this will indirectly benefit the water supply to other villages as well.
