International Cruise Tourism resumes with Cruise Ship 'INSIGNIA' calling at Port Blair Port

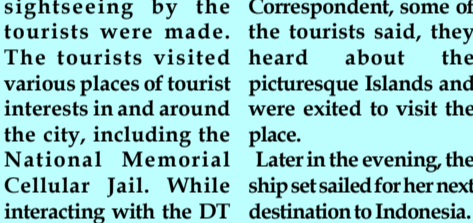

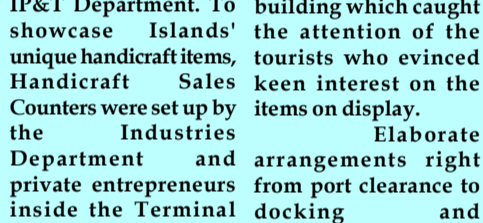

First cruise liner to visit A&N Islands post Covid-19 carrying 458 tourists

Tourists accorded warm traditional welcome on arrival at Haddo Passenger Terminal

Staff Correspondent
Port Blair, May 9

The A&N Islands welcomed its first port call when an international cruise ship 'Insignia' carrying 458 tourists arrived at Haddo Wharf from Colombo this morning. Insignia's docking at Port Blair Port today marks the resumption of the first international port call at A&N Islands post Covid-19 after a hiatus of over three years.

A warm welcome was accorded to the tourists disembarking from the cruise ship in the traditional way at Haddo Wharf by the staff of IP&T Department. Cruise passengers were handed over route maps/ tourism brochures/literature from the Information Counter set up by the IP&T Department. To showcase Islands' unique handicraft items, Handicraft Sales Counters were set up by the Industries Department and private entrepreneurs inside the Terminal building which caught the attention of the tourists who evinced keen interest on the items on display.

Elaborate arrangements right from port clearance to docking and sightseeing by the tourists were made. The tourists visited various places of tourist interests in and around the city, including the National Memorial Cellular Jail. While interacting with the DT

Correspondent, some of the tourists said, they heard about the picturesque Islands and were excited to visit the place.

Later in the evening, the ship set sail for her next destination to Indonesia.

PBMC initiates several measures to improve water infrastructure within the city to cope with existing demand

Support of citizens to conserve & optimize water usage at all levels solicited

Port Blair, May 9

The Port Blair Municipal Council has initiated several measures to improve water infrastructure within the city to cope with the existing demand. As part of this, cleaning and desilting of the existing ponds and wells are being undertaken. PBMC has installed bore wells at various places to mitigate the present demand of the adjoining areas of New Pahargaon. In order to arrest wastage of water, PBMC has issued advisory to install bell type float valves. Apart from this, inspection teams constituted by the Council are carrying out house to house/ commercial/institution inspections to check for its compliance. PBMC has strengthened its Complaint Mechanism to arrest leakage of water.

Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana, Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana and APY complete 8 years

New Delhi, May 9

Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana, Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana and Atal Pension Yojana completed eight years today. These schemes are playing an instrumental role in providing social security net and affordable insurance to the people. These three schemes were launched by Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi on this day in 2015 from Kolkata in West Bengal. The Government had launched two insurance schemes Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana and Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana to make the people belonging from unorganised sections financially secure. The Government also introduced Atal Pension Yojana to cover the exigencies in the old age.

Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana is a one-year life insurance scheme renewable from year to year offering coverage for death due to any reason. The scheme provides life cover of two lakh rupees in case of death due to any reason against a premium of 436 rupees per annum.

Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana is a one-year accidental insurance scheme renewable from year to year offering coverage for death or disability due to an accident. The scheme provides accidental death-cum-disability cover of two lakh rupees against a premium of 20 rupees per annum.

Under the Atal Pension Yojana, the subscribers would receive the guaranteed minimum monthly pension ranging from one thousand to five thousand after the age of 60 years, based on the contributions made by the subscriber.

Lauding these schemes, Finance

Minister, Smti Nirmala Sitharaman said, more than 16 crore people have enrolled under the Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana and more than 34 crore enrolments have been made under the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana. She said, over five crore people have subscribed for Atal Pension Yojana.

About Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana scheme, the Finance Minister said, it has provided crucial support to 6 lakh 64 thousand families who have received claims over 13 thousand crore rupees.

She said, under the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana scheme, more than one lakh 15 thousand families have received claims for over two thousand three hundred crore rupees. She added that simplification of the claim process has resulted in speedier settlement of claims. She said, it is encouraging to see that these schemes are being implemented through a targeted approach to maximise their reach.

The Finance Minister said, the Government is steadfastly dedicated to ensuring that the advantages of these social security schemes reach every eligible individual across the nation. (Source: india.gov.in)

PBMC initiates several measures to improve...

To mitigate the existing scarcity within the city, the A & N Administration is trying to fill up the gap by bringing water from Little Andaman by Ships and barges which is subsequently transported to command tank for further distribution.

The A & N Administration and PBMC have initiated both short and long term measures to alleviate the water scarcity in the Islands. As a proactive measure, the A & N Administration has invited suggestions from general public on ways and means to augment water supply in Port Blair through email-waterportblair@gmail.com other measures like rejuvenation of non-functional ponds, abandoned Japanese wells, identification of water streams and any other water sources are being undertaken. The water level at Dhanikari Dam has gone down due to inadequate rains. The A&N Administration and PBMC are working hand in hand to arrange and distribute water in the most efficient manner. PBMC has wholeheartedly requested the general public to cooperate. "We request the support of all citizens to conserve and optimize water usage at all levels", a press release from PBMC said appealing to citizens: 'Let's Save Water Together'.

Input distribution-cum-awareness prog. on backyard fruit farming organized for Nicobarese farmers

Little Andaman, May 9

Fruits are an essential component of a healthy diet and play a major role in providing essential nutrients to the body. Post-COVID-19 pandemic, there has been increased emphasis on importance of consumption of fruits. A number of major and underutilized fruits can be cultivated under Island condition in home gardens with minimum maintenance. As part of 'Azadi Ka

Amrit Mahotsav', an awareness programme on 'Fruit Cultivation in Home Garden' was conducted by ICAR-CIARI on May 8, 2023 at Harminder Bay, Little Andaman under Scheduled Tribe Component. During the programme, the Coordinator, Dr. Pooja Bohra, Scientist-SS (Fruit Science), ICAR-CIARI enlightened the participants about importance of fruit consumption and encouraged them to grow fruits in their home gardens.

To facilitate them in this venture, variety of hand tools which are required for farming such as pick axe, sickle, spade, machete and hand hoe were distributed to 100 participants. Shri Festus N., Secretary, Tribal Council, Harminder Bay expressed gratitude for conducting the programme for the benefit of tribal farmers, a press release from CIARI said.
