Staff Reporter
 Port Blair, April 11
 Thursday morning witnessed good enthusiasm among voters who have come out in large numbers to exercise their franchise to elect their representative for the 17th Lok Sabha. Despite the sweltering heat, people were seen in long queues in various polling stations of the city and its suburbs, to cast their votes. The first time voters came out to exercise their franchise with pride beaming on their faces while the elderly persons too came out to exercise their right in their respective polling booths with confidence.

Reports from Nicobar District and North & Middle Andaman District also confirm of enthusiastic participation of people in the General Election 2019 as large number of voters made a bee line in numerous polling booths to cast their right. People were seen waiting patiently while carrying their babies as well. Huge number of women also cast their votes promptly, ensuring their participation in the democracy of the country. At North & Middle Andaman, enthusiastic voters; men, women, elderly, divyangs and youngsters came out to exercise their franchise. To get a better picture of the polling day, the DT team visited various locations in the city and its suburbs. Voters of different age groups expressed their opinions on exercising their right. At Bathu Basti, Govt. SSS Polling

Stations, there was a lot of enthusiasm among the voters to cast their votes. Meanwhile, age could not deter the spirit of 101 year old voter, Shri N. Mahalakshmi, R/o Bathubasti who was seen walking accompanied by his son to the polling station at Bathubasti. He said, he has been voting since 1969. Similarly, 83 year old, Savitri also spoke to the DT Reporter and expressed happiness that elderly people were given first preference to vote and were assisted properly. A first time voter Ms. Alisha Shabnam also expressed her happiness in casting her first vote. At Garacharma Govt. Primary School Polling Stations, many elderly people were seen walking up their way to the Pooling booths to cast their valuable votes
