Towards providing clean drinking water to all households in A&N Islands

Long cherished dream of regular water tap connection for 68 years old Leelamma fulfilled through 'Jal Jeevan Mission'

Port Blair, March 13

Amongst the scenic beauty of the Isles, there is a longing struggle to secure clean drinking water and regular water tap connection that cannot go unseen. The story of Leelamma, a sixty-eight years old Anganwadi helper and a resident of Burmanallah, is an eye-opener for other residents who face similar adversity as Leelamma, with no water tap connection in their houses.

Being a mother to her ailing son, Leelamma's struggle to conserve clean water worsened. She had to walk miles and miles to the nearest well from her house to fetch hefty buckets of water, which only added more weight to her emotional and physical strain at the time when she was busy attending kilometer to a nearby freshwater stream to keep the availability of water at her home all the time. It was indeed the time, which Leelamma recalls, a state of tragic despair, where she had no hopes but to carry buckets of water her entire life amidst her other life struggles.

According to Leelamma, 'Jal Jeevan Mission' has been no less than a blessing to her. She says, "Now I have a regular water tap connection at my house and receive a routine water supply." She thanked the A&N Administration as she no longer faces the ordeal to carry heavy buckets to her house to maintain a constant water supply at home, a press release from Secretary (RD/Panchayats) said.

Ensuring Safety from Mobile Towers and Mobile Handsets Radiations

DOT, Government of India has adopted one of the most stringent Electro Magnetic Field (EMF) exposure norms in the world. The measures taken by the Department of Telecommunications, Government of India, are as follows :

Mobile Towers- EMF Radiation Norms:

- EMF exposure limit (Base Station Emissions) is lowered to 1/10th of the existing ICNIRP exposure level effective from 1st Sept. 2012. India now has one of the most stringent EMF exposure norms in the world.
- DOT A&N Unit has been conducting audit on the self certification furnished by the Service Providers and carrying out test audit up to 10% of the BTS sites on a random basis and on all cases where there is a public complaint.
- Telecom Engineering Centre (TEC) has revised the Test Procedure for measurement of EMF for verification of EMF compliance for BTS towers in accordance with new standards effective from 4th June 2018.
- For non-compliance of EMF standards, a penalty of Rs. 20 Lakhs per site is liable to be levied.

Mobile Handsets -EMF Radiation Norms:

- India has adopted the most stringent international norms even for the mobile handsets.
- All the new designs of mobile handsets shall comply with the SAR values of 1.6 W/kg averaged over 1 gram of human tissue and only the mobile handsets with revised SAR value of 1.6 W/kg are permitted to be manufactured in India/ imported to India.
- Specific Absorption Rate (SAR) value information display on the mobile handsets like IMEI (International Mobile Equipment Identity) and also information on SAR values to be made available to the consumer at the point of sale.
- Mobile hand set manufactured and sold in India or imported from other countries are checked by TEC SAR laboratory on random basis for compliance of SAR limit.
- All cell phone handsets sold in the market in India shall comply with relevant standards and shall be available in hands free mode.

Various Myths and Facts about Mobile Handsets & Mobile base stations

Myth	Fact
Mobile phone use cause headaches and Brain Cancer	Headaches and Brain cancer are not related to Mobile phone use and there is no scientific evidence.
It is safer using a mobile phone in a car as the car shields from the radiation.	The RF radiation is increased by Mobile phones when used in a car to overcome the shielding.
Mobile Base stations are dangerous and one should have distance from it.	It is the antenna from which we should keep distance not from tower and that too if we are positioned facing antenna at comparable height. At the ground level, the intensity of RF radiation from base station is much less.
Nobody is investigating the health effects of Radio Frequency (RF) radiation.	The World Health Organization, many national & international organizations and independent expert groups are coordinating to investigate health effects of RF radiation.

Most of the laboratory studies were unable to find a direct link between exposure to Radio Frequency radiation and Health. Use of mobile services is safe. The measures taken by the Government & a handbook on Mobile Communications - Radio Waves & Safety, is available on Department of Telecom website. For more information please visit the web site: www.dot.gov.in It is assured that the DOT, Govt will provide the best possible Telecom Service across the Country without compromising on Public safety and general public health. For any query/ doubts on the emissions from particular towers, DoT A&N Port Blair office can be contacted at (03192) 242727 or (03192) 238890.

APEAL TO GENERAL PUBLIC

Telecommunication services have been playing extremely important role in our economy and more so during pandemics/ disaster situations. During Covid-19 pandemic, telecom services played a major role in maintaining not only the continuity and the functioning of administrative machinery but also economic and industrial activities apart from facilitating 'work from home', education, news, entertainment, social networking, availing online services of A&N Administration such as state government portal, health, education, electricity, employment and keeping the friends and families connected. The need for telecom services has gone up in an unprecedented manner in recent times.

There is an immediate need for faster expansion of telecom infrastructure in A&N Islands. This calls for speedy deployment of towers to expand the coverage. However, due to misconceptions and misinformation, public at some locations are apprehensive whenever a tower is proposed in the vicinity of residence etc.

DoT has created a mechanism to ensure that radiation limits from telecom towers are within limits. All telecom service providers have to give periodic certificates to this effect and DoT field offices have been mandated to audit 10% BTS every year. As part of this, DoT A&N till 28.02.2021 has tested 340 out of 571 BTS and found that all towers are within the permissible radiation levels. Apart from this, DoT has created a portal WWW.tarangsanchar.gov.in wherein there is a provision for the General Public to see the radiation level of towers in their vicinity by entering their area postal PIN code.

Considering the mobile expansion plan in line with the vision and objectives of National Broadband Mission 2019, the number of towers are to be increased from 259 to 500 in the next 3 years. Therefore, DoT Port Blair hereby requests for co-operation from every stakeholder including the general public to shed all misconceptions about mobile tower radiations and come forward to extend all possible support for faster roll out of telecom infrastructure to meet the unprecedented demand for telecom services.

If the owner of Transport Class of vehicle wishes to pay the Road Tax as one time tax for the remaining period after making annual tax initially, then the owner shall be allowed to pay the remaining tax @ 6% of the depreciated value.

Explanatory Note: The Andaman & Nicobar Road Tax Regulation was promulgated in the year 1940. It was further amended in the year 1973 with the rate of Road Tax ranging from Rs. 25 to Rs.150.

The Transport Development Council, the apex body to advise the Govt. of India on all matters relating to roads and road transport, in its 35th meeting has taken the decision to rationalize the motor vehicle taxation to have a uniform motor vehicle tax regime across the states. It was recommended by the TDC to levy life time tax @ 6% or more on the sale price the motor vehicle. Based on these recommendations, different UTs like NCR New Delhi and other states have amended the Taxes levied on motor vehicles ranging from 6 % to 10 %.

The UT of Andaman and Nicobar Islands is located in remote area from Mainland and keeping in view of the transportation/maintenance cost in the motor vehicles, it has been proposed to levy the Road Tax at minimum rate i.e. 6 % recommended by the Transport Development Council.
