Kohli gets career-best ranking

Dubai, Dec 14
Indian captain Virat Kohli rose one place to a career-best second position among Test batsmen on the back of his match-winning double ton against England while spinner Ravichandran Ashwin consolidated his number one place among bowlers in the ICC Player Rankings issued today.

Kohli, who scored 235 runs in India's only innings in Mumbai in the fourth Test, his highest score in the longest format, has helped him add 53 points, for an aggregate of 886 rating points, to place him to a career-best second rank. He is now in line to top the rankings in all three forms of the game at some point in time.

Kohli, who is presently ranked second in ODI Player Rankings among batsmen and first in Twenty20 Internationals, is 11 points behind Australia captain Steve Smith, who will have a chance to maintain his top ranking in an upcoming three-Test cricket series against Pakistan.

SC dismisses BCCI's review plea against Lodha panel recommendations

New Delhi, Dec 14
Supreme Court has dismissed the plea of BCCI to review its July 18 verdict directing the cricket body to implement Lodha panel recommendations for structural reforms in BCCI. A bench of Chief Justice T S Thakur and Justice S A Bobde said they have examined the grounds urged in support of the prayer for review.

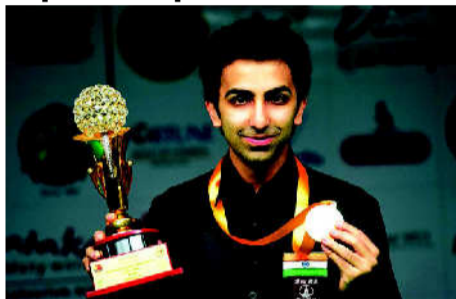

The bench said, it found no error apparent on the face of the record to warrant recall of its order dated July 18, 2016. It said the review petitions are, accordingly, dismissed. The apex court had on July 18 passed the order on the recommendations of Justice Lodha committee and ordered a comprehensive revamp of the Board of Control for Cricket in India, BCCI, over the next six months, to be overseen by the committee.

India to contribute 5 lakh US Dollars to CERF for year 2016-17

New Delhi, Dec 14
India said it will contribute 5 lakh US Dollars to the United Nations's Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF) for the year 2016-17. It stressed that the international response is falling significantly short of the challenges posed by humanitarian crises. At the high-level Pledging Conference, Counsellor in India's Permanent Mission to the UN, Anjani Kumar said that India has so far contributed six million US Dollars to the fund. Anjani Kumar said, despite resource constraints, India has always been forthcoming within its ability and national circumstance in offering humanitarian assistance as per the needs and requests of friends and partners. CERF allocates approximately 450 million US Dollars in a year for humanitarian operations in about 50 countries.
