Units through Leased Lines but this facility has many drawbacks resulting inconvenience to the commuters. Now, with the availability of adequate internet connectivity in the Islands, the Department has approached NIC, Uttarakhand for a complete solution. Accordingly, a new application with all facilities has been implemented by the name of ANTS-Andaman & Nicobar Ticketing Software in this UT. The facility was inaugurated by Dr. Navlendra Kumar Singh, Director of Transport in the Bus Terminus, Port Blair on Feb. 12 in the presence of all employees and commuters in a simple function. First online ticket was printed by the Director of Transport and handed over to the passenger from the ticketing counter. ANTS application is a cloud based software through which the facility of advance reservation of bus tickets, bus passes and cancellation of bus tickets can be availed. Due to limited ATR bus service in the prevailing pandemic situation, in the first phase this application is only allowed to access by all ATR counters of Transport Department. Commuters can now reserve their tickets one month in advance from any of the ticket counters of Transport Department i.e. Port Blair, Ferrargunj, Baratang, Kadamta, Rangat, Mayabunder and Diglipur initially. Commuters can also check the status on availability of bus ticket by visiting the portal. Once the restriction due to pandemic is eased, the application will be made available to the general public and they can reserve their tickets from anywhere through an internet connection by accessing the portal <https://ants.andaman.gov.in> after making online payment. This application will also be made available to private bus operators. The reservation of bus tickets can also be done by using a mobile app, a press release from Directorate of Transport said.

woman with high will power, Smti. S Maheswari wanted to live her life with a sense of self-worth, respect and dignity. She was determined to make her own choices and decisions about her career. She realized the need of changing herself from being a home maker to be an entrepreneur. At this juncture, her brothers encouraged her on starting up a business venture on her own and also advised her to explore the possibilities of starting one hollow block manufacturing being on high demand. She was enthusiastic and started analyzing on the market demand, the process of manufacturing of hollow block, requirements for investment, machineries etc. On being satisfied wholeheartedly, she stepped into the Office of the A&N Islands Khadi & Village Industries Board and enquired on the procedures & other documentation formalities for starting up a self employment venture. Smti. Maheswari was counseled with the details of the PMEGP scheme and was advised to talk to any nationalized bank which could sanction her loan. Convinced with the simple nature of the PMEGP scheme and positive attitude of the financing bank, she had applied for a loan of Rs. 4,70,000/- and had also prepared herself to invest Rs. 1,12,500/- from her side. Recognising the viability of a hollow block manufacturing unit and the reflection of her determination, the Syndicate Bank, Garacharma sanctioned and released her the required loan. Striding through an arduous path with undoubting fortitude, today, Smti. Maheswari has well established herself as a successful entrepreneur. This has resulted into her net monthly income of Rs. 40,000/- even after meeting repayment of loan instalment and other expenses. (Source: A&NIKVIB)

(iii) On such demand of compensatory cost by the citizen, at the time of delivery of citizen related service, it shall be the duty of the competent officer to pay such cost to the citizen against acknowledgement and receipt as per the format as prescribed in the rules.

11. Procedure governing fixing of liability: -

(i) Within a period of fifteen days of the payment of such compensatory cost, the competent officer, after conducting preliminary enquiry, shall issue a notice against the government servant found responsible for the delay in delivery of such citizen related services, calling upon him as to why the compensatory cost paid to the citizen may not be recovered from him.

(ii) The government servant against whom such notice is issued may represent within a period of seven days from the date of receipt of such notice. In case no such representation is received by the competent officer within the prescribed period of the explanation received, if any, is not found satisfactory the competent officer shall be entitled to issue debit note directing such defaulting government servant either to deposit the cost as stipulated in the debit note or directing the accounts officer concerned to debit the salary of such government servant for the amount as mentioned in the debit note:

Provided that if the competent officer finds reasonable and justified grounds in favour of such government servant and comes to the conclusion that the delay in the delivery of services to the citizen was not attributable to him but was attributable to some other government servant as found responsible for the delay and shall follow the procedure mutatis-mutandis as stipulated in this sub-section and sub-section (1) of this section.

(iii) While fixing the liability under this Regulation, the competent officer shall follow the principles of natural justice before passing the order in that respect.

CHAPTER-III

RIGHT OF APPEAL AGAINST THE ORDER FIXING LIABILITY

12. Right of appeal:-

(i) Any government servant aggrieved by the order passed by the competent officer in accordance with section 9 and 10 shall be entitled to file an appeal to the Appellate Authority against such order within a period not exceeding thirty days of the receipt of the impugned order. The order of the Appellate Authority shall be final and binding.

(ii) For the purpose of this section, the Administration or the local body concerned, as the case may be, shall appoint an officer to be the Appellate Officer to hear and decide appeals against the order passed by the competent officer. The Appellate Officer shall not be below the rank of Joint Secretary of the Government or its equivalent rank in the case of a local body.

CHAPTER-IV

MISCELLANEOUS

13. Developing culture to delivery services within fixed period:-

(i) The defaults on the part of government servant in the time bound delivery of citizen related services as defined in this Regulation shall not be counted towards misconduct as the purpose and object is to sensitize the public servant towards the citizen and to enhance and imbibe a culture to deliver time bound services to the citizens.

(ii) In case of habitual defaulter:- The competent officer shall be competent to take appropriate administrative action after recording a finding to this effect, but not before giving a show cause notice and opportunity of hearing to the defaulting servant.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this sub-section, a government servant shall be deemed to be habitual defaulter in case he incurs more than twenty five defaults in one year.

(iii) To encourage and enhance the efficiency of the government servants, it shall be lawful for the competent officer to recommend cash incentive not exceeding five thousand rupees in aggregate in favour of a government servant against whom no default is reported in one year. On such recommendation, the Administration of the local body concerned, as the case may be, shall be competent to grant such incentive as it deem fit and proper not exceeding the amount as recommended by competent officer, along with certificate of appreciation.

14. Deemed service condition: - The provision of this Regulation shall be deemed to be part of service conditions of the government servants including such servants of local bodies of the Government.

15. Supplement: - The provisions of this Regulation shall be supplemented to the disciplinary and financial rules and such other services rules and regulations as applicable to the employees of the Administration or local body concerned, as the case may be, and not in derogation to such service rules and regulations governing the services condition of the government employees or the employees of the local body concerned.

16. Power to make rules: -

(i) The Administration may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Regulation.

(ii) In particulars, and without prejudice to the generality of the forgoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(a) The manner and the forms of giving notice under this Regulation; The procedure governing preliminary enquiry and adjudication by the competent officer governing fixing of liability of cost;

(b) The procedure governing adjudication of appeals by the appellate authority;

(c) The procedure pertaining to application governing citizen related services;

(d) The procedure governing generation of application number online;

(e) The procedure governing managing, maintaining, operating of online status of the applications of citizen related services;

(f) Any other matter which is required to be, or may be prescribed.

(iii) Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, or a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if before the expiry of session immediately following the session or the successive sessions as aforesaid both Houses Agree for making any modification in the rules or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

17. Power to remove difficulties:-

(i) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Regulation, the Administration may, by order published in the official gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulties.

Provided that no such orders shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Regulation.

(ii) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be, after it is made, be laid before the Administrator of Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

By order of the President
Secretary to the Govt. of India
