ICC U-19 World Cup 2018

India look to maintain momentum against PNG before business end

Bay Oval, Jan 15
After a commendable performance against Australia in the first match of the ICC U-19 World Cup where India defeated their counterparts by 100 runs, the Rahul Dravid coached Indian team takes on minnows Papua New Guinea in their next encounter at the Bay Oval. This is the second match of the group stage for both the teams in Group B. While India will be supremely confident after their win, PNG will be hoping for a better performance after their miserable day against Zimbabwe on Saturday. However, India must not let complacency set in as they have been shocked by minnows before with defeat against Nepal a prime example. Led by Prithvi Shaw, India will view this match as a good opportunity to sharpen their skills before they head into the business end of the tournament. After putting in an impressive performance with the bat, the likes of Manjot Kalra, Shubham Gill, Prithvi Shaw will look to continue their good run of form. While Kamlesh Nagarkoti and Shivam Mavi, after grabbing eyeballs will spearhead the pace attack. Young Arshdeep Singh will get a look in as Ishan Porel picked up an injury.
