Digital Andaman: Consumers facilitated with online payment of electric bill

Registered users under Urjapay portal increases to 5408; 25238 consumers made payment of bills

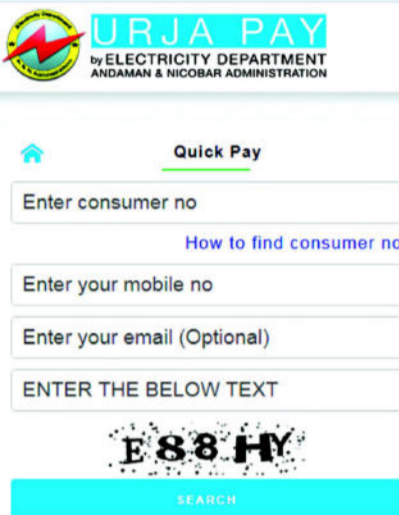

Staff Reporter

Port Blair, Feb. 15

The Digital India initiative of A&N Administration has made life much easier for people as access to facilities are at the click of a button. The online payment facility of electricity bill through <https://urjapay.andaman.gov.in> anytime anywhere is receiving encouraging response from users residing in South Andaman, reducing the queuing up of consumers for bill payment at billing centers.

This is evident from the number of users registered. As on Feb. 8, 2021, a total of 5408 users have been registered under the portal while a total of 25238 consumers had carried out online payment of bills. A total transaction amount of Rs. 2,42,59,324/- has been made through this facility.

Consumers have been encouraged to make use of this facility by visiting the website <https://urjapay.andaman.gov.in>. The consumers have two options for making the payment viz. by registering themselves on the website- the registered user can add multiple accounts besides they will be provided with a dashboard to view the details of previous transactions of all accounts including the due amount and make payment or by using quick pay option- the consumers can make the payment by entering the consumer number.

12. Right of appeal:-

- (i) Any government servant aggrieved by the order passed by the competent officer in accordance with section 9 and 10 shall be entitled to file an appeal to the Appellate Authority against such order within a period not exceeding thirty days of the receipt of the impugned order. The order of the Appellate Authority shall be final and binding.
- (ii) For the purpose of this section, the Administration or the local body concerned, as the case may be, shall appoint an officer to be the Appellate Officer to hear and decide appeals against the order passed by the competent officer. The Appellate Officer shall not be below the rank of Joint Secretary of the Government or its equivalent rank in the case of a local body.

CHAPTER-IV
MISCELLANEOUS

13. Developing culture to delivery services within fixed period:-

(i) The defaults on the part of government servant in the time bound delivery of citizen related services as defined in this Regulation shall not be counted towards misconduct as the purpose and object is to sensitize the public servant towards the citizen and to enhance and imbibe a culture to deliver time bound services to the citizens.

(ii) In case of habitual defaulter:- The competent officer shall be competent to take appropriate administrative action after recording a finding to this effect, but not before giving a show cause notice and opportunity of hearing to the defaulting servant.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this sub-section, a government servant shall be deemed to be habitual defaulter in case he incurs more than twenty five defaults in one year.

(iii) To encourage and enhance the efficiency of the government servants, it shall be lawful for the competent officer to recommend cash incentive not exceeding five thousand rupees in aggregate in favour of a government servant against whom no default is reported in one year. On such recommendation, the Administration of the local body concerned, as the case may be, shall be competent to grant such incentive as it deem fit and proper not exceeding the amount as recommended by competent officer, along with certificate of appreciation.

14. Deemed service condition: - The provision of this Regulation shall be deemed to be part of service conditions of the government servants including such servants of local bodies of the Government.

15. Supplement: - The provisions of this Regulation shall be supplemented to the disciplinary and financial rules and such other services rules and regulations as applicable to the employees of the Administration or local body concerned, as the case may be, and not in derogation to such service rules and regulations governing the services condition of the government employees or the employees of the local body concerned.

16. Power to make rules: -

- (i) The Administration may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Regulation.
- (ii) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the forgoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-
(a) The manner and the forms of giving notice under this Regulation; The procedure governing preliminary enquiry and adjudication by the competent officer governing fixing of liability of cost;
(b) The procedure governing adjudication of appeals by the appellate authority;
(c) The procedure pertaining to application governing citizen related services;
(d) The procedure governing generation of application number online;

- (e) The procedure governing managing, maintaining, operating of online status of the applications of citizen related services;
 - (f) Any other matter which is required to be, or may be prescribed.
 - (ii) Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, or a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if before the expiry of session immediately following the session or the successive sessions as aforesaid both Houses Agree for making any modification in the rules or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
- 17. Power to remove difficulties:-
(i) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Regulation, the Administration may, by order published in the official gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulties.
Provided that no such orders shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Regulation.
(ii) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be, after it is made, be laid before the Administrator of Andaman & Nicobar Islands.
