President calls for strengthening the alternative judicial system

Allahabad, Dec 16 President Shri Ramnath Kovind has emphasized on conducting judicial work in common man's language. Addressing a function at the Allahabad High Court after laying the foundation stone of Nyaya Gram project, he said, adjournments of court hearings should be avoided to provide justice to poor people. President Shri Kovind also called for strengthening the alternative judicial system to provide justice faster and in the least expensive manner. He said, this system will help in expeditious disposal of pending cases. He appreciated both the bench and bar of Allahabad High Court for taking initiatives to expedite the pending cases in lower judiciary. Shri Kovind also emphasized the need to provide judgements in local languages. Speaking on the occasion, Uttar Pradesh Governor Shri Ram Naik said, measures should be taken to deliver justice to poor people with honesty and without any delay. Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath said, his government is always ready to provide assistance for strengthening the judicial infrastructure. He urged both bench and bar to be alert on PIL being filed for the sake of publicity. He said, this trend adversely affects the common causes.

Nation celebrates Vijay Diwas; PM salutes soldiers who fought 1971 War

New Delhi, Dec 16 The nation celebrated Vijay Diwas today, commemorating the victory of Indian Army over Pakistan in 1971 war. A number of ex-servicemen, who fought in the war, participated in the celebrations across the country. This year's celebration marks the 46th anniversary of India's victory over its neighbour. On December 16, 1971, chief of Pakistani forces Lieutenant General AAK Niazi, along with 93 thousand troops, surrendered to the allied forces, comprising the Indian Army and the Mukti

Bahini, led by Lieutenant General Jagjit Singh Aurora, who was the Eastern Army Commander. On the occasion, a wreath-laying ceremony was held

Jadeja hits six sixes in an over ahead of South Africa tour

Gandhinagar, Dec 16 Jadeja scored 154 off just 69 deliveries in his explosive innings during a district-level T20 game. Swashbuckling all-rounder Ravindra Jadeja smashed six sixes in an over in a local cricket match, sending selectors a reminder of his short-form prowess after being omitted from India's recent Twenty20 squads. Jadeja scored 154 off just 69 deliveries in his explosive innings during a district-level T20 game on Friday in India's western Gujarat state, including a total of 10 sixes. The 29-year-old left-hander has been left out of India's one-day and T20 squads of late, last playing the shortest version of the game at international level in July against the West Indies. However, he has been a match winner for India in Tests — a format in which he is currently ranked second in the world among all-rounders. Only four batsmen have ever achieved the feat of hitting six sixes in one over in first-class or international matches.

Beijing, Dec 16 The emblems of the Beijing 2022 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games have been named "Winter Dream" and "Flight," respectively. The emblem launching ceremony was held at the National Aquatic Center, which staged the swimming events during the Beijing 2008 Games. In 2022, this venue will be transformed into an ice rink for curling games. At the launch ceremony, a series of performances were staged with a theme of Winter Olympic Dream. The chief designer of the two emblems is Lin Cunzhen, deputy dean of China Central Academy of Fine Arts' Design School. She started her work in the field of Olympic emblem design back in 2003.

India vs Sri Lanka, 3rd ODI: Rohit Sharma & Co eye series win at fortress Visakhapatnam

Visakhapatnam, Dec 16 An imposing line-up and an impeccable record in this port city make India the clear favourites as they seek to clinch another series win against Sri Lanka in the third and final One-day International on Sunday. India have not lost a series at home since the defeat to South Africa in October 2015. Sri Lanka, on the other hand, are seeking to win their first ever bilateral series in India, having lost eight and drawn one. Skipper Rohit Sharma led the fightback for India in Mohali with a superb double century, his third in ODIs after the team had been outplayed in the series opener in Dharamsala. Sharma and his men will look to ride the momentum after a big win in the second game and seal the series at the ACA-VDC stadium. The Indian team has lost only once at the venue in the seven games played here (with one being washed out) and will hope to keep winning on what has generally been a high-scoring ground. Defeat in Dharamsala meant India can't overtake South Africa in the ICC ODI rankings but a series win is at stake. Rohit & Co will look to maintain supremacy over the visiting Lankans, having won the Test series earlier.

Team India: Rohit Sharma (captain), Shikhar Dhawan, Shreyas Iyer, Dinesh Karthik, Manish Pandey, M S Dhoni (WK), Hardik Pandya, M S Washington, Sundar, Bhuvneshwar Kumar, Yuzvendra Chahal, Jasprit Bumrah, Kuldeep Yadav, Ajinkya Rahane, Axar Patel, Siddarth Kaul.
Team Sri Lanka: Thisara Perera (captain), Upul Tharanga, Danusha Gunathilaka, Lahiru Thirimanne, Asela Gunaratne, Sadeera Samarawickrama, Niroshan Dickwella (WK), Dhananjaya de Silva, Angelo Matthews, Sachith Pathirana, Suranga Lakmal, Nuwan Pradeep, Akila Dhanajaya, Chaturanga de Silva, Dushmantha Chameera, Kusal Perera.

Cooperative Bank Gold Loan ...

(Contd. from page 1) accused Kalishwaran in connivance with some of his known persons lured other people to obtain gold loans by mortgaging fake gold ornaments at various branches of ANSCB, Port Blair. Soon a manhunt for the suspect Kalishwaran was mounted. On Dec 14, following credible information, that accused Kalishwaran was expected to arrive at Veer Savarkar airport from Chennai, a team was deployed at airport and on arrival at airport he was immediately detained and put to sustained interrogation during which he confessed to the crime and disclosed names of his accomplices in the crime. He also disclosed the modus operandi adopted by them, stating that they used to take assistance of known people in securing gold loans by mortgaging fake gold ornaments purchased from Chennai. He told that since he was the Appraiser for the bank, he could pass off fake gold as genuine. No one ever doubted the quality of gold and he could obtain multiple gold loans using fake gold. He also said that there could be up to 500 fake gold loan accounts in various branches of A&N Sate Cooperative bank. The accused Kalishwaran was arrested and Police Custody remand has been obtained to further unearth the facts and people involved in the crime. It is noteworthy that the accused Kalishwaran had left the islands around four months ago when he suspected that this scam could come to light. The mastermind of the crime, Kalishwaran was arrested as a result of sustained investigation conducted by the investigating team comprising Insp. Sahil Shamsudin, SI P Jeevan and SI Shilpi Singha under supervision of Shri. Nishant Gupta, Dy. SP, South Andaman.
