State-Level DISHA Meeting of Andaman & Nicobar Islands held at Lok Niwas after a gap of ten years

Reviews development schemes and emphasised on time-bound resolution of public grievances

Directions issued to ensure monitoring, transparency and accountability in development works

Review of development priorities, including Citizen Charter, Vendor Zones and Abhyudaya Coaching

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 17

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, today attended the State-Level District Development Coordination and Monitoring Committee (DISHA) meeting of Andaman & Nicobar Islands held at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram. The meeting, held after an interval of ten years, was chaired by the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, Andaman & Nicobar Islands and Chairman of the DISHA Committee, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray. During the meeting, a detailed review of the progress, implementation status and future action plans of various developmental schemes and programmes was undertaken.

The main objective of the meeting was to understand the actual status of implementation of Government schemes at the grassroots level, identify the challenges being faced and ensure effective and time-bound resolution of public grievances. The Chairman asked all Departments to ensure that the benefits of schemes reach the last person and, for this purpose, strengthen transparency, regular monitoring and accountability. He emphasized that the success of development works is determined not merely by budget allocation or project approval, but by their quality, timely and transparent implementation on the ground.

During the meeting, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor directed that the Citizen Charter be effectively implemented for all citizen services and public welfare schemes. Display of information boards at the concerned offices and public places regarding the benefits of schemes received by citizens was also directed to be ensured. In addition, he directed the establishment of Vendor Zones at suitable locations for traders, street vendors and people engaged in the informal sector. Directions were also issued to launch the Abhyudaya Coaching Programme to enhance the academic preparation and employability of students.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor asked the officers to regularly monitor the physical and financial progress of ongoing development works so that projects can be completed within the stipulated time frame. He directed that coordination among Departments be enhanced and the obstacles being faced in the implementation of schemes be resolved in a time-bound manner. While ensuring transparency and accountability in Government functioning, the benefits of schemes should reach eligible beneficiaries. He stated that public grievances and suggestions should be taken seriously and their prompt redressal should be ensured.

On the occasion, Chairperson, Sri Vijaya Puram Municipal Council, Smt. M. Vasantha, Chief Secretary, Shri Gyanesh Bharti, senior officers of the Andaman & Nicobar Administration, Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, officers of the concerned Departments and other members of the Committee were present. Deputy Commissioners of North & Middle Andaman and Nicobar District, along with other concerned officers, participated in the meeting through virtual mode.

During the meeting, detailed discussions were held on the progress of schemes being implemented by various Departments, their physical and financial status, inter-departmental coordination and necessary measures for future activities. The objective of the DISHA Committee is to strengthen the monitoring and coordination of development initiatives within the constitutional framework of the respective roles of the Central Government, Union Territory Administration and local bodies. At the conclusion of the meeting, all Departments assured that they would prepare a time-bound action plan for compliance with the directions, regularly review progress and accord priority to issues concerning public interest, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Seventh 'Sagarika Emporium' of Industries Department inaugurated at Haddo Wharf

Sagarika Emporium at Haddo Wharf to connect local handicrafts and Self-Help Groups with the market

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 17

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, today inaugurated the seventh emporium of the Industries Department, "Sagarika Emporium", at Haddo Wharf in Sri Vijaya Puram, Andaman & Nicobar Islands. This emporium will become an important medium for taking the products of local handicraft artisans, craftsmen and Self-Help Groups to the market and tourists. Through this, along with promoting the traditional art, handicrafts and local souvenir items of the Islands, it will also help in increasing the income of local producers.

Sagarika Emporium will work towards connecting tourists with the cultural heritage, local crafts and unique souvenir items of Andaman & Nicobar Islands. Products manufactured by local handicraft artisans and Self-Help Groups will be displayed and sold at the emporium, thereby encouraging their productivity, employment opportunities and economic empowerment. This initiative will also play an important role in connecting the tourism sector with the local economy.

On this occasion, a kiosk was also unveiled to obtain experiences, suggestions and feedback from tourists. Through this kiosk, tourists will be able to share their opinions, which will help in bringing improvements in the quality of tourism facilities, local products and services.

The inauguration ceremony was attended by the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, Commissioner-cum-Secretary, Smt. Chanchal Yadav, Chairperson of the Municipal Council, Smt. Vasantha, Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, Secretary (Industries), Secretary (Home), Secretary (Personnel) and senior officers of various Departments, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, unveiled the "Swachh Shehar - Union Territories" Award received by Sri Vijaya Puram under Swachh Survekshan 2025-26 at Lok Niwas. The award was presented by the Hon'ble President of India at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, on November 11.

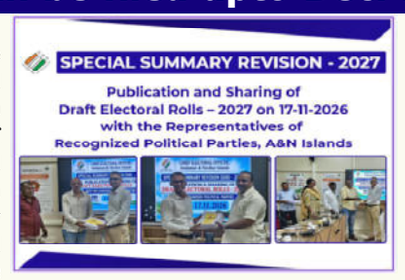

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, honoured Shri J.S. Virat, the Gold Medal winner at the Commonwealth Schools Chess Championship 2026 held in Kuala Lumpur, by presenting him with a Certificate of Appreciation at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram, and extended his best wishes for a bright future.

Third Day of SARAS Aajeevika Mela 2026 witnesses enthusiastic participation

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 17

The third day of SARAS Aajeevika Mela 2026, organized by the Directorate of Rural Development, Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) & Urban Local Bodies (ULBs), Andaman & Nicobar Administration, witnessed enthusiastic public participation, encouraging sales and a vibrant cultural programme at the mela venue, Sri Vijaya Puram.

The mela continued to provide a dedicated platform for Self-Help Groups (SHGs), rural women entrepreneurs and traditional artisans to showcase their products, promote local craftsmanship and explore wider marketing opportunities. Visitors showed keen interest in the diverse range of products displayed by participating SHGs, reflecting the growing appreciation for locally produced goods and women-led entrepreneurial initiatives.

On the third day, the mela recorded a total sales turnover of Rs. 2,75,000/- (approx), with an estimated footfall of 780 visitors. The encouraging response from visitors and customers reflects the growing public interest in the products showcased by SHGs and the importance of providing direct marketing opportunities to rural entrepreneurs.

One of the major highlights of the day was the cultural programme, which showcased the rich cultural heritage, artistic talent and diversity of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands through performances representing different islands and Blocks.

The cultural programme commenced with a vibrant Folk Dance performance by participants from Nicobar, featuring 11 performers. This was followed by a solo song performance by Trusila, representing Little Andaman Block. A dance presentation by five participants from Little Andaman Block further added to the cultural celebrations.

The programme also featured a solo song performance by a participant from Rangat Block, followed by a lively filmy song presentation by Drusila and Paul. The evening concluded with an engaging karaoke performance by Sitesh Live Orchestra, featuring 10 participants, which added musical vibrancy and entertainment to the celebrations.

The cultural programme witnessed the participation of approximately 30 performers across the various presentations, providing a platform for individuals and groups from different islands and Blocks to showcase their talents and celebrate the cultural diversity of the region.

SARAS Aajeevika Mela 2026 is scheduled to continue till November 29, 2026, offering visitors an opportunity to explore a diverse range of rural products, traditional handicrafts, locally made items and cultural performances while supporting the livelihood initiatives of Self-Help Groups, a press release from RD Department said.

File No. 5-1/EC/A&N/2023/676 Dated:16.11.2026

To

The Director of Panchayat and Municipal Elections/
Dy. Commissioner, South Andaman,
Andaman & Nicobar Islands,
Sri Vijaya Puram – 744 101

Subject: Revision of electoral rolls for Panchayats and SVPMC – reg.

Sir,

Kindly refer to this Commission's letter of even number dated 27.10.2026, your e-mail dated 15.11.2026 and further discussions on the above noted subject.

Considering the request of the A&N Administration and also the fact that the Election Commission of India has now shared the electoral database for ANIPC published in February, 2026, this Commission has now decided that the said electoral roll, being the latest available database, may be taken as mother-roll for the revision/updation of electoral rolls for Panchayats and SVPMC, as also required under Rule 17 of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Panchayats) (Preparation of Electoral Rolls and Conduct of Elections) Rules, 1995 and Rule 10 of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Municipal) (Preparation of Electoral Rolls and Conduct of Elections) Rules, 1995, for their forthcoming general elections. The schedule for revision shall be as under:

Sl. No.	Activity	Period
1	Preparation of draft electoral rolls	17.11.2026 to 19.11.2026
2	Printing of draft rolls	20.11.2026
3	Publication of rolls in draft	21.11.2026
4	Period for lodging suggestions and objections	21.11.2026 to 05.12.2026
5	Disposal of suggestions and objections	Up to 08.12.2026
6	Preparation and printing of electoral rolls	By 10.12.2026
7	Final publication of electoral rolls	11.12.2026

It is, therefore, requested to take necessary action as per the schedule mentioned above, with reference to 01.10.2026 as the qualifying date. The schedule may be given wide publicity through AIR, local press and local doordarshan, etc., and may be adhered to strictly.

The earlier exercise of revision/updation of electoral rolls for Panchayats and SVPMC vide letter dated 27.10.2026 may be treated as cancelled ab-initio.

Yours faithfully,
(S.K. Gupta), Secretary
