Prithvi Shaw dismisses rumours on 'indiscipline' speculations

New Delhi, Mar 16
Young batsman Prithvi Shaw dismissed speculations that indiscipline forced his premature return from the Australia tour and insisted that it was only because of slow recovery from an ankle injury. Prithvi had sustained the injury while fielding in a practice game and initially it was said that he would be available from the third Test onwards. However the 19-year-old was sent back and it was widely believed that it was because the youngster was losing focus. "These are rumours, so I will better let it go," Prithvi said during an open media session of Delhi Capitals on Saturday.

Indian Wells: Angelique Kerber snaps Belinda Bencic's 12-match winning streak to reach final

California, Mar 16
German tennis star Angelique Kerber produced a rich vein of form as she broke her Swiss opponent Belinda Bencic's 12-match winning streak to storm into the finals of the BNP Paribas Open in California on Saturday. Kerber, the three-time major champion, looked dominant throughout the match as she posted a comfortable 6-4, 6-2 win in the semi-final of the women's singles event that lasted one hour and seven minutes. After making it to her first last-four round for the first time in California, eighth-seed Kerber admitted that though it was quite tough to play against Belinda, she tried to focus only on her side of the court.
