For the first time in decades a direct review has happened

Law Officers & Govt. Officers cautioned to sternly safeguard Govt. interest and resumption of large estates

Port Blair, April 17

The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Jitendra Narain reviewed pending law cases in High Court and Supreme Court through video conference and cautioned all Law Officers and Govt. Officers to strictly safeguard Govt. interest and resumption of large estates and ensure its proper monitoring.

It may be viewed that for the first time in many decades, the legal cases have been reviewed personally by the Chief Secretary and he has asked the Departments to start appearing for individual reviews for arbitration cases and specially large value cases of resumption of estates which were given as lease to some persons who are trying to project these lands as their personal lands. The Chief Secretary reviewed law cases for over two hours, to formulate a strategy to take back the land in the interest of the people of the Islands. The Chief Secretary also directed the Law Officers and Govt. Officers to take immediate steps so that people do not illegally use and enjoy these properties.
