New Delhi, Feb 18

The National Pharmaceuticals Pricing Authority, NPPA has asked manufacturers and importers of coronary stents to submit details, including price list of their products, before 1st of next month.

In a notification, the drug pricing regulator also asked the manufacturers to furnish quarterly returns of production, import and sale of coronary stents. The NPPA said, manufacturers will issue price list to it online through Integrated Pharmaceutical Database Management System (IPDMS) and submit a copy to all state drug regulators and all distributors, dealers and retailers.

It also said, if the requisite information is not submitted within the prescribed date, necessary action will be initiated. The regulator also said special interactive sessions will be held on 21st of this month to address the issues related to filing of firms in IPDMS, price compliance in respect of coronary stents and other related issues.

Providing relief to cardiac patients, NPPA cut prices of life-saving coronary stents by up to 85 per cent by capping them at 7,260 rupees for bare metal and 29,600 rupees for drug eluting variety.

Befitting events mark 'Jaagrit'- Techno Sports Fest of DBRAIT

Port Blair, Feb 18 'Jaagrit', the 11th Techno Sports Fest of DBRAIT was conducted in the Netaji Stadium with full fervor and pride today. Shri Sheo Krishna, Executive Engineer (Retd.) APWD and a veteran sports personality of these islands, was the chief guest for opening ceremony. Last year's sports champion Ms. Anisha and Mr. Amit Dey administered the oath to the twelve contingents who were representing their respective departments. Later the chief guest declared the meet 'open'. Earlier in the morning, to mark the beginning of Techno-Sports, the ceremonial torch was lit by using direct rays of sun at the institute followed by the rally. The torch traversed the route, starting from Institutes' Campus via School Line, Junglighat, Middle Point, Aberdeen Bazar and entered from the Marina Park to the historic Netaji Stadium. The torch was carried by a slow bike rally of students & staff accompanied by the students holding their departmental flags and plaque cards highlighting the use of cashless transaction, Swatcha Bhaarat and ban on the use of alcoholism.

The day long track and field events followed by special events were conducted at Netaji Stadium.

Later, the chief guest for the closing ceremony, Shri Narayan Moorthy, veteran sports person and the only hockey coach declared the sports meet closed.

Mr. Mohd Aslam of Electrical Department was declared the best sports boy and Ms. B. Usha of Electrical Department was declared the best sports girl for this Techno-Sports Fest 2017. Also Mr. Abdul Aziz and Ms. Elizabeth of Community college were adjudged best boy and best girl respectively.

The Electrical Department was adjudged the best department for Girls and Boys of "Jaagrit" Techno Sports Fest 2017

The Techno-Sports 2017 was also attended by the grandparents and parents of the academic toppers. The other veteran sports persons present on the occasion were also felicitated.

The prizes to the winners of various events were given away by the veteran sports persons and grandparents of the academic toppers.

Shri. Abhishek Gupta, Assistant Professor (Elect.) proposed the vote of thanks at the end, the communication received from Shri Sanjay Malhotra, Dean Students Affair and Convener of the Techno Sports 2017 said.
