PM Modi interacts with Indian diaspora in his 'Bharat Ki Baat, Sabke Saath' programme

London, Apr 19 Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today interacted with the Indian diaspora in his 'Bharat Ki Baat, Sabke Saath' programme at Westminster's central hall in London and spoke on topics as diverse as crimes against women and children in India, his government's performance and programmes, and country's foreign policy.

The surgical strikes conducted by the Indian Army in the aftermath of the Uri attack and the National Health Protection Mission (NHPM), were also some topics of discussion during Shri Modi's interaction.

The Prime Minister also spoke about his personal outlook regarding serving the country and the role of criticism of the government in a democracy.

Supreme Court dismisses PIL on Justice Loya's death

Port Blair, April 19 In a press release received here today, the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray has mentioned that a malicious and scandalous PIL was filed before the Supreme Court of India seeking the constitution of Special Investigation Team (SIT) to investigate the death case of Justice B. H. Loya while a delegation of MPs was also taken by the opposition party, to the President of India to create sensation on this issue. The Supreme Court has dismissed the PIL today with the observation that the death of Justice Loya was a natural death, thereby independent inquiry is not required. The Court also observed that it is the misuse of PIL for personal agenda and petition amounts to criminal contempt. The MP further stated that
