The Govt. of India vide letter no. 10(3)/2005-Py.IV/PD-I/Vo.III dated 03/11/2014 has clarified that the States/UTs shall ensure that the short falling quantity of wheat flour (Atta) during the process of conversion is to be adjusted from the issued quantity accordingly. Further, it is also to mention that States/UTs may raise the end retail price of wheat flour (Atta) from Rs 2/kg stipulated for wheat under NFSA, 2013 so as to cover the cost of conversion of wheat into wheat flour (Atta) and recover the same from the eligible households under NFSA 2013 i.e. Priority Households and AAY households. While recovering the cost of conversion of wheat into wheat flour (Atta), the States/UTs shall keep in mind that the additional cost being charged is limited to the cost of conversion.

As far as this UT is concerned, considering the socio-economic condition of the eligible households covered under NFSA 2013 (PHH & AAY), this Administration is providing fortified wheat flour at a very affordable rate of Rs. 3.60/- per 920 grams keeping the loss incurred in the process of milling @ 8% per kg which is below par the wastage allowed @ 12% by weight as incorporated under the Food Safety and Standards Acts 2006. The additional cost incurred during conversion of wheat into wheat flour (Atta) is passed on to the APL beneficiaries by way of cross-subsidization to avoid any hardship to the economically backward NFSA beneficiaries.

The category-wise monthly entitlement of fortified wheat flour is as under:-

Category	Monthly Entitlement minus the permissible wastage	End Retail Rate	Remark
Priority Household(PHH)	920 grams (0.92 kg) per unit	Rs. 3.60/- per 920 gram	NFSA Beneficiaries
Antyodaya Anna Yojana(AAY)	3680 grams (3.68 kg) per card	Rs. 3.60/- per 920 gram
Above Poverty Line(APL)	(i) Family upto 3 units- 7360 grams (7.36 kg) (ii) Family with 4 and above units- 11040 grams (11.04 kg)	Rs. 20.70/- per 920 gram	Tide over allocation

The Administration is providing fortified atta in packed form to the PDS beneficiaries at a highly subsidized price compared to locally ground atta without fortification and packaging available in the open market at a range of Rs 40-45/- per kg and company packed atta selling at MRP in the range of Rs 55-60/-.
