LG inaugurates 'Wellness Conclave'

Exhorts people to look beyond self for amelioration of society

'Share & care' should be the motto of life: LG

Port Blair, June 20

The Lt. Governor, Lt. Gen AK Singh (Retd) has given a clarion call to all the people of these Islands to live in hope and urged them to look beyond self; in the larger interest of the society and the nation. He was speaking as the chief guest of the inaugural ceremony of a 'Wellness Conclave' at the JNRM auditorium here this morning. The unique proactive well being conclave was organized by the Directorate of Social Welfare, A&N Administration in association with Sleepwell Foundation, New Delhi, to celebrate International Day of Yoga which falls tomorrow (June 21).

Addressing the gathering, the Lt. Governor complimented the organizers for conducting the conclave at Port Blair and said it is a very topical seminar and aims to benefit the Islanders. "The wellness conclave is happening on the eve of Yoga, which itself is a great way to achieve wellness. Complete wellness encompasses the human being and his environment. It has to look beyond body and touch minds and souls too. "Life is not a race, pause for a while; catch your breath & look at the beautiful moments that surround us. Live in hope rather in despair. Don't let your ego drive your discourse", said the Lt. Governor asking people to come out of negative discourses leading to despair, "it should be positive discourse leading to hope", he advised.

The Lt. Governor also requested people to care for the less fortunate ones in this world and lend them a helping hand too. "Share and care should be the motto to follow. Give more than you receive; to your family, friends, society and the country at large", he said.

Speaking about the society of A&N Islands, the Lt. Governor said, the society of A&N Islands is still evolving and developing. "People have an Island mentality of isolation and have issues like high rate of suicides; to handle here. The literacy rate of the Islands is very high; so is the case of unemployment. Though Govt. is the major employer and is responsible and accountable for the people and their well being, it alone cannot achieve all the goals", said the Lt. Governor urging the society of these Islands to realize its responsibility; help others and better each others' lives. "Do not live in a status quo", said the Lt. Governor asking the people to be agents of positive changes for the overall development of these Islands.

The Lt. Governor expressed happiness that there is hope amongst the younger generation today who march ahead with the motto of 'I can, I shall, I will' and the nation has great hope from this generation which is prospering under the dynamic leadership of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi.

The Lt. Governor concluded his speech by narrating a quote of Swami Vivekananda- "Life is a series of struggle and we have to overcome it". Earlier, the Lt Governor also released a quarterly magazine on A&N Islands brought out by A&N Administration on the occasion. He lauded the efforts of the Secretary, Social Welfare, Smti Rashmi Singh in bringing out the magazine in a short span of time.

The Commander-in-Chief A&N Command Vice-Admiral, Vimal Verma, the Chief Secretary (i/c), Shri Raajiv Yaduvanshi, senior officers from Defence and Civil Administration, civil society groups also attended the inaugural ceremony of the conclave.

In her introductory address, Ms. Namita Gautam, Managing Trustee, Sleepwell Foundation, said, Sleepwell Foundation team is delighted to be in Port Blair and hopes to make these Islands more beautiful with mantras of proactive wellness. "Our mission is to sensitize and positively impact lives of youth of India, especially the women through awareness programmes, actions and advocacy on wellness (proactive wellness), clean India, skill development and education. We dedicate ourselves to help Young India unlock its true potential", she said. This conclave is an important one as it coincides with the International Day for Yoga tomorrow, she added.

In her welcome speech, the Secretary, Directorate of Social Welfare, Smt. Rashmi Singh expressed her happiness that the Department of Social Welfare succeeded in organizing this prestigious wellness conclave in Port Blair. She further stated that wellness conclave is not just a one day event but it is a drive against negativity and is aimed at overcoming negative thoughts. This conclave has been organized in partnership with Sleepwell Foundation to improve the overall well being of the people of these Islands, she added.

The inaugural session was followed by two programmes in the morning. Accordingly, a lecture cum demonstration of 'Yoga on Holistic Wellness' was presented by Dr. Sadhna Gupta, Integrative Health Sciences & Yogacharya which stressed on the need for a holistic wellness in order to be happy and healthy in life. She demonstrated yoga steps; on how to be in peace with oneself by incorporating peace & calmness in our
