Centre starts providing foodgrains to States under National Food Security Act (NFSA) free for one year

Free foodgrains will concurrently ensure uniform implementation of portability under the One Nation One Ration Card across the country

New Delhi, Jan. 1
The Centre has started providing foodgrains to States under the National Food Security Act (NFSA) free for one year from today. Last week, the Cabinet had decided to provide grains under NFSA free of cost to 81 crore beneficiaries during 2023. The Scheme will also ensure effective and uniform implementation of the Act. Free foodgrains will concurrently ensure uniform implementation of portability under the One Nation One Ration Card across the country.

has a social and legal commitment to the people of the nation -- a dignified life by ensuring their access to food and nutritional security through the availability of an adequate quantity of quality food grains.

Under the scheme, Central Government will provide free foodgrains to all NFSA beneficiaries including Antyodaya Anna Yojana households and Priority Household persons. The foodgrains will be provided through the widespread network of over five lakhs Fair Price Shops across the country. The Central Government will bear the food subsidy of more than two lakh crore rupees in one year. The decision will strengthen the provisions of NFSA, in terms of accessibility, affordability and availability of foodgrains for the poor. (Source: india.gov.in)

People across the globe welcomed New Year 2023 with pomp and gaiety

New Delhi/ Port Blair, Jan.1
Cities across the globe welcomed 2023 with fireworks and light displays. The Pacific nation of Kiribati was the first country to greet the new year, followed by Auckland in New Zealand, where people celebrated the arrival of the New Year with fireworks launched from the city's Sky Tower. The UAE attempted to break two Guinness World Records by featuring 452 pyro drones and 15,000 nano lights, colours and shapes in their fireworks display in Abu Dhabi. With dazzling fireworks and electrifying music, cities across India welcomed the year 2023 with much pomp and show. From Delhi to Mumbai and Chennai to Kolkata, the mood on the December 31st night was like a merry-go-round.
New Year celebrations have always been a time to unwind, to reset, and to welcome the future with open arms. In A&N Islands, people from all walks of life were seen enjoying the New Year revelries in city as well as in outskirts. Many people enjoyed New Year's Eve by organizing different functions while a good number of tourists were also seen gathered at vantage

Implementation of Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi Scheme in A & N Islands by Agriculture Deptt.

Rs. 37.1974 crores disbursed to 16,506 PM-KISAN beneficiaries through DBT so far

Staff Reporter
Port Blair, Jan. 1
The Government with a view to augment the income of the farmers, launched the Central Sector Scheme 'Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi' (PM-KISAN) during the financial year 2018-19 which is 100% funded by Govt. of India. Under the Scheme, eligible farmer families receive financial benefits of Rs. 6000/- per year payable in 3 equal installments of Rs. 2000/- each, every four months. The scheme aims to supplement the financial needs of the farmers in procuring various inputs to ensure proper crop health and appropriate yields, commensurate with the anticipated farm income. The Agriculture Department has been designated as the Nodal Department for implementation of the Scheme and Director (Agriculture) as State Nodal Officer (State Admin for PM-KISAN Portal). At District level, all the Deputy Commissioners have been designated as District Level Nodal Officers. The Block Level Monitoring and Implementation

Committees are headed by concerned Assistant Director (Agriculture). In Andaman & Nicobar Islands, as on date, so far 16,506 farmers were benefited & an amount of Rs 37.1974 crores were disbursed through DBT to beneficiaries account under this ambitious scheme of Government of India-PM-KISAN.
