National Food Security Act to be implemented in all remaining states by April 1st

New Delhi, Jan 21 National Food Security Act will be implemented in all remaining States and Union Territories barring Tamil Nadu, by 1st of April this year. Currently 25 states have rolled out the Act and 11 are in the process of doing so. Briefing media in New Delhi today about achievements of his Ministry, Food Minister Shri Ram Vilas Paswan said that direct cash transfer of food subsidy is being implemented on a pilot basis in Puducherry and Chandigarh. He said Dadra and Nagar Haveli is also in full readiness for implementation of this cash transfer scheme. Outlining the steps taken to strengthen Public Distribution System (PDS), Shri Paswan said digitization of ration cards is one of the important components for making PDS leak proof and the Government has digitized 97 per cent ration cards across the country so far. He said Centre will soon achieve 100 per cent digitization of ration cards. The Minister further said that the transparency portal to display all operations of PDS has been launched in 27 States and UTs and Online system for redressal of PDS grievances has been

Maiden night flight arrives in Isles

GoAir flight with 155 tourists lands at VSI Airport; to operate chartered flight between Bengaluru -Port Blair

Daily summer schedule flights connecting Port Blair to Bengaluru to be effective from March 27

Port Blair, Jan 21

It was a historical moment as the maiden night flight in the Andaman sector, operated by GoAir, (Airbus A-320 neo series), arrived at the Veer Savarkar International Airport, Port Blair in the wee hours today (2 am on Jan 21, 2016). With this, GoAir has become the first airline to commercially operate night flights to Port Blair, turning night landing of flights in Andaman Sector into a reality. The scheduled private chartered flight service between Bengaluru and Port Blair, operated by GoAir that arrived here with 155 tourists from Bangalore, departed at 2.30 am (Jan 21).

Commenting on the launch of the night operations, Lt Gen AK Singh, Lieutenant Governor, Andaman and Nicobar Islands said "I would like to thank GoAir for being the pioneering airline to commercially undertake night landing at the recently upgraded Port Blair airport and for enhancing direct connectivity to Bengaluru. The airport was recently upgraded with improved runway, lighting and navigation systems to allow commercial night flying for the growth and development of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The upgrade was carried out by the Andaman and Nicobar Administration, with support from the Civil Aviation Ministry, Directorate General of Civil Aviation, Andaman and Nicobar Naval Command and Airports Authority of India."

It may be recalled that A&N Administration had been vigorously pursuing the matter with the Ministry of Civil Aviation, DGCA, A&N Command, Airport Authority of India and Air India for operationalizing the Port Blair Airport during night hours as being most important for the growth and development of these Islands as well as for exigencies. The night landing facility could become a reality under the able guidance and vibrant leadership of the Lt. Governor, A&N Islands, Lt. Gen. A.K. Singh (Retd). To be a part of the historical moment, the Secretary Civil Aviation, Shri NK Sharma, the Deputy Director Civil

Injured Maxwell in doubt for fifth ODI vs India

Canberra, Jan 21
Australia's Glenn Maxwell is in doubt for the fifth and final ODI against India after the middle-order batsman was hit on the knee during his cameo in the home team's fourth consecutive win in the cricket series. Maxwell was struck on the right knee during the early stages of his entertaining blitz, which helped Australia post a challenging 348 for eight at the Manuka Oval. The white ball hit Maxwell on an unprotected area as he bent his right leg in an attempt to work a ball from Ishant Sharma on the leg side. Cricket Australia said the blow had caused some swelling and discomfort in Maxwell's knee and that he would be assessed in the coming days.

clinched the India Super Series and Swiss Open last year, thrashed 16th seed Boonsak Ponsana of Thailand 21-17 21-10 in a men's singles match to take a 2-1 lead in their head-to-head encounter. The World No. 9 from Guntur will lock horns with China's Huang Yuxiang next. Ajay Jayaram, seeded 10th, also progressed to the last eight round but he had to fight it out to register a 11-21 21-8 22-20 win over Malaysia's Zulfadli Zulkiffli.

Jayram will now face the winner of another third round match between top seed Lee Chong Wei of Malaysia and Singapore's Zi Liang Derek Wong. However, it was curtains for Indian women's doubles pair of Jwala Gutta and Ashwini Ponappa as they lost their second round match 14-21 17-21 against Japanese duo of Shizuka Matsuo and Mami Naito in just 37 minutes to crash out of the tournament.

Dipika Pallikal powers into semifinals in Toronto

Toronto, Jan 21
Last year's runner-up Dipika Pallikal moved into the semifinals of the Granite Open squash tournament after a convincing win over Egyptian Salma Hany Ibrahim in Toronto. The 17th-ranked Indian and second seed defeated her 27th-ranked opponent 12-10, 11-2, 11-4 in the quarterfinals held on Wednesday. Except in the first game where the fifth seeded Egyptian went close, Pallikal kept things her way to complete her task in 34 minutes. She faces Nicolette Fernandes, the sixth seed from Guyana, in the semifinals. "I knew it was going to be tough against Salma as I got chopped in three games the last time I played against her. The first game was crucial and it was good that I won it after trailing 7-10. From there on I became more confident and that helped in the next two games. Very pleased with the win as Salma is such a talented player," said Pallikal.

processing of calculation of wages and dues of the employees at the end of Employers. The remittances of the dues in the bank also required additional time in the manual setup. The recent technological advancement has empowered employers to compute the wages and liabilities through aid of computers. Facility now exists to file Electronic Challan-cum-Return (ECR) and remittance of dues through Internet Banking. This has substantially reduced the process and time taken in calculation of PF dues and its remittances in the bank.

The concession of 5 days has outlived its basic purpose and utility. Accordingly, the concession of grace period of 5 days available to the employers for depositing the contribution & other dues is withdrawn. This shall apply from February, 2016 for depositing contributions for the month of January, 2016 that is payable in the month of February, 2016. The employers will therefore need to deposit the remittances within 15 days of close of every month from February, 2016, a communication received here said.
