Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji today held a meeting with the Chief Secretary and the Director General of Police at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram, ahead of his visit to Delhi. The meeting reviewed the law and order situation and issued directions to expedite measures for the prevention and treatment of swine flu. Along with this, Agniveers were appointed with the approval of the Government of India and directed the deployment of an ambulance van at Radhanagar Beach and a rescue boat at Elephanta Beach.

GREETINGS

On the auspicious occasion of Durga Puja and Dussehra, I extend my heartfelt greetings and best wishes to all the islanders of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

This sacred festival symbolises the victory of good over evil and inspires us to follow the path of truth, righteousness and virtue. The triumph of Maa Durga over Mahishasura and that of Lord Shri Ram over Ravana convey the message of facing challenges with courage, faith and unwavering determination.

These festivals hold special significance in our beautiful islands, where the cultures and traditions of different communities flourish in an atmosphere of mutual harmony. The spirit of unity among the islanders strengthens our shared identity and reinforces the bonds of togetherness, mutual respect and brotherhood.

On this auspicious occasion, let us resolve to preserve our rich cultural diversity, promote compassion and strengthen the spirit of "Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat". With the blessings of Maa Durga, may every family be blessed with happiness, peace, good health and prosperity, and may our islands continue to progress on the path of unity, harmony and sustainable development.

(Dr. Dinesh Sharma)

SADEC reviews African Swine Fever situation; strengthens containment measures in A&N Islands

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 19

The State Animal Disease Emergency Committee (SADEC), under the chairmanship of the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, reviewed the prevailing African Swine Fever (ASF) situation and containment measures in the Islands. The meeting was attended by senior officials of the Administration and a team from the Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Government of India, led by Dr. Naveena B. Maheshwarappa, Animal Husbandry Commissioner.

The Deputy Commissioners of all three districts briefed the Committee on the current situation and measures undertaken. Culling operations have commenced in affected areas of Sri Vijaya Puram as per the prescribed SOP, while surveillance, sample collection, sanitization and public awareness activities are being strengthened in the affected and vulnerable areas.

The Animal Husbandry

Commissioner emphasized strict biosecurity, timely reporting of suspected cases, regular surveillance, safe disposal of carcasses and prevention of unauthorized movement of pigs and pork products. He also clarified that ASF is a non-zoonotic disease and does not infect humans.

The Chief Secretary directed the Department of Animal Husbandry and Veterinary Services to ensure adequate stocks of essential materials, including disinfectants and protective equipment, for the next three months. The Port Management Board, Aviation authorities and District Administrations were directed to strengthen surveillance and enforce applicable restrictions on the transportation of pork and pork products.

The Administration has urged pig rearers and the public to cooperate with veterinary authorities, follow prescribed biosecurity measures and immediately report suspected illness or deaths among pigs to the nearest veterinary institution, a press release from Deptt. of AH&VS said.

Former India spinner Ramesh Powar appointed to senior men's cricket selection committee

New Delhi, Oct. 19

Former Indian spinner Ramesh Powar has been appointed as a member of the senior selection committee of the Indian men's cricket team. According to an official statement, Pragyan Ojha will head the committee based on his seniority among the committee members. Accordingly, the senior Men's Selection Committee now comprises Pragyan Ojha, Shiv Sundar Das, RP Singh, Ajay Ratra and Ramesh Powar.

The BCCI said the decision to appoint Ramesh Powar was taken at a meeting of the Cricket Advisory Committee held earlier today. Mr. Powar has represented India in two Tests and 31 ODIs during his playing career. He has also held a coaching role for Indian women's team besides being a bowling coach at the BCCI Centre of Excellence.

The BCCI also showed appreciation for Mr. Ajit Agarkar for his commitment, conviction and contribution during his tenure as Chairman of the Men's Selection Committee. Since his appointment in July 2023, Agarkar led the committee through a significant period for Indian cricket, with India winning three ICC trophies, two Asia Cup titles and back-to-back Asian Games gold medals. He retired earlier this month.

restaurants and ships.

➤ Follow official instructions: Cooperate with veterinary surveillance, testing, culling and other disease-control measures directed by the competent authorities.

Advisory for the General Public

➤ Do not transport live pigs or pork products in violation of applicable regulations or official restrictions.

➤ Do not discard food or meat waste where pigs can access it.

➤ Do not touch, open, move or dispose of dead pig carcasses yourself.

➤ Immediately report unusual pig deaths or suspected cases to the nearest Veterinary Institution or the area SVO.

➤ Ensure safe disposal of food waste from ships, markets, hotels and other establishments to prevent access by pigs.

Culling and Safe Disposal of Carcasses

Where culling is directed by the competent authorities, pigs confirmed or suspected to be infected, as well as pigs identified as exposed through contact with infected pigs, shall be dealt with in accordance with official disease-control instructions.

➤ Contact the area SVO immediately for necessary action. Culling shall be undertaken under the supervision of the SVO, in coordination with the SVPMC team and the concerned administration.

➤ Pigs identified for culling shall not be slaughtered, moved or disposed of by farmers on their own.

➤ Carcasses shall be disposed of safely through deep burial, in accordance with the directions of the competent authorities and applicable environmental and public-health requirements.

➤ As far as practicable, individual burial pits should be avoided in favour of common community burial pits identified at the Panchayat level or above, at suitable locations away from human habitation and transport routes, subject to site suitability and official approval.

➤ Sick, suspected, exposed and healthy pigs shall be kept segregated as far as practicable, under veterinary guidance, to minimise further transmission.

Compensation

Compensation, wherever admissible, shall be considered in accordance with the applicable Government of India notification dated 2020 and the prescribed procedure. Farmers must cooperate with the designated team and complete the prescribed verification formalities.

Special Precautions

Strictly follow official directions on the movement of pigs and pork products between islands and through ships, boats and other transport. Ensure appropriate cleaning and disinfection of vehicles, containers and equipment.

Treatment and Vaccine

There is no specific curative treatment or officially approved vaccine for ASF. Strict biosecurity, early reporting, segregation and timely implementation of official disease-control measures are essential to prevent further spread. The cooperation of all is required to control and eradicate the disease from these islands, a press release from Deptt. of AH&VS said.

directed to intensify awareness activities among pig farmers and the general public regarding the symptoms of African Swine Fever, modes of transmission and the precautions required to prevent its spread. Special emphasis was laid on discouraging the movement of pigs and pork products from affected areas without due authorisation and on ensuring strict compliance with the guidelines issued by the competent authorities.

The Deputy Commissioner also called upon PRIs to actively support the Administration by disseminating advisories at the village level, sensitising pig farmers and coordinating with the Veterinary Department for timely reporting of suspected cases. Heads of Departments were instructed to extend all necessary assistance and ensure close coordination with the designated district-level authorities.

He further stressed that any suspected case must be reported immediately to the Veterinary Department and that appropriate biosecurity, sanitation and containment measures must be followed to minimise the risk of further transmission.

The meeting underscored the importance of collective responsibility, timely information-sharing and community participation in safeguarding livestock and protecting the livelihoods of pig farmers in North & Middle Andaman District.

The District Administration appealed to all pig farmers, livestock owners and members of the public to remain vigilant, follow official advisories and cooperate with the concerned departments in the collective effort to contain African Swine Fever, a press release from DC, N&MA said.
