Demonetisation not to agonise anyone but to clean economy: PM

Agra, Nov 21 Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has said that the ban on high value currency notes is not to agonise anyone but to clean our economy. Speaking on demonetisation after launching the Pradhanmantri Grameen Awas Yojna, an ambitious housing scheme meant for the rural poor in Agra yesterday, the Prime Minister said more than five lakh crore cash has been deposited in banks since last ten days. Addressing a 'Parivartan' rally, Shri Modi acknowledged that people got some pain due to it but it is in fact punishment for those who had accumulated huge black money. He thanked people for bearing the pain of high value note ban. Shri Modi said his decision to demonetise high value currency notes is punishment for those who have accumulated huge black money. Under the Pradhanmantri Grameen Awas Yojna scheme, the government will provide pucca houses to all the rural poor of the country by 2022. Addressing the 'Parivartan' rally, Shri Modi said those who are most deprived in the society will get the benefit first under this scheme. He said the new houses will be equipped with PM Ujjawala Yojna. The Prime Minister cautioned people holding Jan Dhan accounts not to allow themselves to be used for laundering the money of the rich by depositing their ill-gotten

Awareness prog. on adoption of children held People urged to provide conducive environment for children to thrive

Staff Reporter Port Blair, Nov 21 An awareness programme on adoption of children was organized by the Andaman and Nicobar State Social Welfare Board in the auditorium of Directorate of Health Services here this evening. The Secretary, Social Welfare, Smti Rashmi Singh was the chief guest and Captain Priti Sidharth Singh from Delhi was the guest speaker. Smti Rupa Ray, PBMC Chairperson, Shri B. Eswar Rao, Adhyaksh, ZPSA, Shri

Jaydeep Kumar Dey, Up-Adhyaksha, ZPSA Smti. Bhageshwari, President DWWA, Smti Seema Verma also graced the occasion. Addressing the gathering, the chief guest remarked that adoption and nurturing of a girl child is very important. In India, the adoption of girl child is far more, as compared to boy child, as per 2012-13 census. This, she said, is due to various reasons viz. lesser availability of boy child for adoption, increasing number of single woman who prefer adoption of girl child etc. She stressed that cultural norms and stereotypes needs to be challenged as every child deserves proper upbringing and all children deserve to grow in a conducive environment. She further stated that adoption should not be a taboo and people must come forward and give the lesser privileged children,

Vizag Test: India beat England by 246 runs, take 1-0 lead in 5-match series

Visakhapatnam, Nov 21
In Cricket, India today won the second Test at Visakhapatnam by 246 runs to take a 1-0 lead in the 5-match series. England, who were chasing a victory target of 405, were skittled out by Team India for 158 on the fifth and final day of the game. The visitors had resumed their second innings at the overnight score of 87 for 2. Indian bowlers, then, turned the game on its head this morning taking five wickets in the opening session and three post lunch. Ravichandran Ashwin and debutant Jayant Yadav bagged 3 wickets each in the second innings, while Mohammad Shami and Ravinder Jadeja took two apiece. Ashwin had scalped 5 wickets in the first innings. Yesterday, the hosts were bundled out for 204 which gave England a 405-run target. The first Test had ended in a draw. The third match of the series will be played in Mohali from Saturday.

ATP World Tour finals: Andy Murray beats Novak Djokovic to win title and seal world no. 1 spot

London, Nov 21
Andy Murray proved his critics wrong who often said that the Briton would never win a major or he get to No 1 position in the world rankings by defeating Novak Djokovic at London's O2 Arena late Sunday in the finals of ATP World Tour to finish the year as the new world number one. The Scot produced a superb display to defeat Djokovic 6-3, 6-4 in the finals and guaranteed that he would remain above the Serb in the last rankings of 2016.

Addressing the journalists, Smt. Maneka Gandhi said that the workshops are being organised by the Ministry to empower the women journalists so that they can act as agents of change especially in matters pertaining to women and child development. The effort of the Ministry is to connect to the journalists from the grassroots to make them active participants in the process of change, to receive feedback from them and also to receive ideas from the grassroots which will benefit the women and children, Smt Maneka Gandhi added. Journalists should also try to highlight success stories and find role models to enable the Ministry to give recognition to genuine people, especially to women contributing to community building in the field, she said. Smt. Maneka Gandhi made a comprehensive presentation on the issues taken up by the WCD Ministry in the last two years. Smt. Gandhi highlighted the numerous 'firsts' of the Ministry of Women and Child Development including Beti Bachao Beti Padhao scheme, setting up of One Stop Centres for women in distress, Mahila e-Haart, panic button on mobiles, guidelines for matrimonial websites, 33% reservation for women in police force, gender champion scheme, unique initiative with railways for missing children, comprehensive adoption reforms, junk food guidelines and many more such initiatives. The WCD Minister also gave a brief overview of the initiatives in the pipeline like digitisation of anganwadis, direct benefit transfer to women, anti-trafficking Bill, draft National Policy for Women among others. The key focus is to reduce malnutrition for which the WCD Ministry is holding regular consultations with the states on improving the content of food being provided to the children in anganwadis and regular monitoring of their nutrition status, Smt Maneka Gandhi elaborated. The WCD Minister also held a question and answer session with the journalists on issues like child abuse, discrimination against women in various fields especially employment, financial empowerment of women, nutrition, malfunctioning of anganwadis in several states etc
