PM inaugurates India's 2nd eco-friendly airport in Vadodara

Vadodara, Oct 22
With an aim to provide impetus to the civil aviation sector, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi inaugurated the international terminal at Harni airport in Vadodara on Saturday. This is PM Shri Modi's first visit to Vadodara after assuming office as the Prime Minister in May 2014. After inaugurating the terminal, the Prime Minister expressed happiness that two airports in India have joined the green movement, one in Kochi and the other in Vadodara. Harni airport is only the second "green building" airport in country. Shri Modi said connectivity is an important aspect and the NDA government is giving special emphasis to connectivity in tier 1 and tier 2 cities. The Prime Minister also said that Vadodara will host country's first railway university. Shri Modi also spoke about how India will match America in terms of air travel in the next five years. Prime Minister highlighted the fact that increase in air connectivity will boost the economic growth in the coming years. Earlier, Civil Aviation Minister spoke about gov't efforts to give boost to the aviation sector in the country. The state-of-the-art terminal, built at a cost of 160 crore rupees, is spread over 18,120 square metres and can handle 700 passengers both, domestic and international per hour. It will have 18 check-in counters. It took more than seven years for completing the new international terminal building project.

MP lays foundation stone for replacement of existing hume pipe culvert into box type at old Pahargaon

Staff Reporter
Port Blair, Oct 22
The foundation stone for replacement of existing hume pipe culvert into box type culvert at old Pahargaon, near DBRAIT was laid by the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray by unveiling the plaque in the presence of PBMC Chairperson, Shri B. Eswar Rao here this morning.

Addressing the gathering, the Member of Parliament said, preparing timely estimate and execution of work for various projects in Isles is very important. He lauded APWD for adhering to the timeframe in laying the foundation stone for replacement of existing hume pipe culvert into box type as per the direction of the Lt. Governor and expressed hope that the same will be followed in other pending projects as well. The MP informed that for carrying out repair/widening of 200km roads in villages of the Isles, estimates/ funds will be provided by the Govt. and APWD will execute the work in coordination with the Pradhan, Zilla & Samiti.

Similarly, funds will also be provided by the Govt. for construction of 90km National Highway road in Neil, Havelock, Hutbay, Little Andaman and Diglipur. Accordingly, the estimate will be made by the consultant while APWD will prepare the DPR for 90.7km and execute the work, he said. He also urged APWD to start the work as early as possible. Regarding shortage of materials in the store division at Diglipur, the MP urged APWD to ensure availability of required materials for carrying out the work smoothly.

BCCI agrees to use DRS, to be used in Test series vs England

Mumbai, Oct 22
BCCI has agreed to use Decision Review System (DRS) on a trial basis during India's home Test series against England starting next month. BCCI in a statement said that

DRS will be deployed in the forthcoming series between India and England starting from the 9th November 2016, on a trial basis to evaluate the improvements made to the system, over a period of time.

The changes, which have been effected to DRS, include the introduction of ultramotion cameras for accurate ball tracking and Ultra edge technology for determining the frame of impact.

Messi back for Argentina's World Cup duel with Brazil

Buenos Aires, Oct 22
Lionel Messi was named in Argentina's squad for their heavyweight World Cup qualifying clash against bitter rivals Brazil on Friday having missed the last three fixtures through injury. Messi had been sidelined from international duty with a thigh injury but buoyed by a midweek hat-trick for Barcelona in the Champions League against Manchester City, he returns to an Argentina team struggling in fifth spot in World Cup qualifying. Only the top four sides are guaranteed a place in the finals in Russia in 2018 with the fifth-place finishers facing a play-off. Without Messi, Argentina drew with Venezuela and Peru and lost 1-0 at home to Paraguay.

ban so that we can minimize cancer cases in these Islands", the MP said.

The Member of Parliament said, he will conduct awareness camps at schools and colleges to enlighten the young generation about the ill-effects of tobacco products and motivate them to never take tobacco product in their entire life. The MP also showed the video clipping of the interview he had with the people in an around the town and rural areas where people appreciated the tobacco ban. Many people during the interview spoke in favour of tobacco ban and appreciated the Administration for strictly imposing the ban in letter and spirit. They said that this ban will surely have a good impact of the young generation in the years to come.

The MP also informed that he will be visiting London in the month of November 2016 as a Member of the Parliamentary Committee delegation. The Lok Sabha Speaker nominated Shri Bishnu Pada Ray as one of the Member of the three member CPA Committee scheduled to visit London.

Meanwhile, the MP also refuted the allegation leveled by a political party which reportedly spread the message that the MP has called the people of Tamil and Telugu Communities as thieves. He also introduced two eye witnesses to the media persons, who conveyed to the media that the MP has never said anything about both the communities and the allegations leveled against the MP is baseless. The MP stated that such allegations are being leveled to malign his image and to damage his reputation as politician and as an MP, who never supports corrupt practices.

Further, the MP said, he also met the traders who are facing financial losses due to immediate ban on tobacco products. While discussing with the traders, the MP felt that there is genuine concern about disposal of the tobacco products which has already landed in Port Blair for which tax and other charges have already been paid by the traders. The traders have requested an extension for about two months so that the existing stock is liquidated legally, the MP said. Further, the MP said that the traders have also assured that no further import of tobacco product will be undertaken and the Administration's ban order will be complied with letter and spirit. The MP has also met the concerned authorities at higher level to put forth the view point of the traders, he said.
