Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi addresses Parakram Diwas programme in Andaman & Nicobar Islands via Video Conferencing

Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose was not only a great hero of the freedom struggle but also a visionary of independent India: Hon'ble PM

Parakram Diwas inspiration will continue to strengthen India's resolve for development: Hon'ble PM

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 23 (PIB) Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the Parakram Diwas programme in Andaman & Nicobar Islands via Video Conferencing today. Speaking on the occasion, Shri Modi stated that January 23 is the glorious date of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose's birth anniversary. He remarked that Netaji's valor and courage inspire us and fill us with reverence for him. He highlighted that in recent years, Parakram Diwas has become an integral festival of the nation's spirit. Shri Modi said it is a happy coincidence that January 23 is Parakram Diwas, January 25 is National Voters' Day, January 26 is Republic Day, January 29 is Beating Retreat, and January 30 is the death anniversary of revered Babu, creating a new tradition of celebrating the grand festival of the Republic. He extended greetings to all citizens on Parakram Diwas. Noting that in 2026, the main celebration of Parakram Diwas is being held in Andaman and Nicobar, Shri Modi highlighted that the history of Andaman and Nicobar, filled with valor, sacrifice, and courage, the stories of patriots like Veer Savarkar in the Cellular Jail, and its connection with Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose make this celebration even more special. The Hon'ble Prime Minister remarked that the land of Andaman symbolizes the belief that the idea of freedom never ends. He said that many revolutionaries were tortured here and many fighters sacrificed their lives, but instead of extinguishing, the spark of the freedom struggle grew stronger.

Shri Modi stated that as a result, the land of Andaman and Nicobar became witness to the first sunrise of free India. He recalled that even before the 75th anniversary of this great event was marked, he had the privilege of hoisting the tricolor at the same place on December 30. Shri Modi remarked that as the national anthem played by the ocean shore, the tricolor fluttering in strong winds seemed to call out that countless dreams of freedom fighters had come true. Shri Modi stated that after independence, the glorious history of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands should have been preserved, but at that time those who came to power carried a sense of insecurity. He remarked that they wanted to limit the credit for freedom to only one family, and in this political self-interest, the nation's history was neglected. Shri Modi highlighted that Andaman and Nicobar too were left tied to the identity of colonial rule, with its islands still known by the names of British officers even seventy years after independence. The Hon'ble Prime Minister said that his Government ended this injustice of history, and therefore Port Blair has now become 'Sri Vijaya Puram', a name that reminds us of Netaji's victory. He added that similarly, other islands were renamed as Swaraj Dweep, Shaheed Dweep, and Subhash Dweep. Shri Modi recalled that in 2023, 21 islands of Andaman were named after 21 Param Vir Chakra awardees. He emphasized that today, names linked to slavery are being erased in Andaman and Nicobar, and the new names of free India are establishing their identity. The Hon'ble Prime Minister further remarked that Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose was not only a great hero of the freedom struggle but also a visionary of independent India. He envisioned a nation modern in form yet rooted in India's ancient consciousness. Shri Modi said that it is our responsibility to acquaint today's generation with Netaji's vision, and expressed happiness that his Government is fulfilling this responsibility. He highlighted that a museum dedicated to Netaji has been built at the Red Fort in Delhi, a grand statue of Netaji has been installed near India Gate, and the contribution of the INA has been remembered in the Republic Day parade. The Hon'ble Prime Minister added that the Subhas Chandra Bose Disaster Management Awards have also been instituted. He remarked that these initiatives are not only a mark of respect to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose but also serve as immortal sources of inspiration for our youth and future generations. Shri Modi stated that honoring these ideals and drawing inspiration from them is what fills our resolve for a developed India with energy and confidence. Shri Modi stated that a weak nation finds it difficult to achieve its goals, and therefore Netaji Subhas always dreamt of a strong nation. He remarked that in the 21st century, India too is establishing itself as a powerful and resolute nation. He highlighted that during Operation Sindoor, India struck back by entering the homes of those who inflicted wounds on the country and destroyed them. Shri Modi emphasized that India today knows how to build power, how to manage it, and how to use power. He said that following Netaji Subhas's vision of a strong India, the country is working to make the defense sector self-reliant. The Hon'ble Prime Minister noted that earlier India was dependent only on importing weapons from abroad, but today India's defense exports have crossed Rs. 23,000 crore. He added that indigenously built BrahMos and other missiles are attracting global attention. Shri Modi remarked that India is modernizing its armed forces with the power of self-reliance.

Highlighting that today 1.4 billion citizens are united in working towards the resolve of a developed India, a path strengthened by the Atmanirbhar Bharat campaign and powered by the mantra of Swadeshi, the Hon'ble Prime Minister concluded by expressing confidence that the inspiration of Parakram Diwas will continue to give strength to this journey of a developed India.

the iconic INA song "Kadam Kadam Badhaye Ja, Khushi Ke Geet Gaye Ja...". Addressing the gathering, Shri Vivek Aggarwal, IAS, Secretary, Ministry of Culture, highlighted the life and immense contribution of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose to India's freedom struggle. He recalled that on December 30, 1943, Netaji hoisted the Indian National Flag for the first time at Sri Vijaya Puram, declaring the Andaman and Nicobar Islands as the first Indian territory liberated from British rule.

To mark the occasion, a grand cultural programme was presented by eminent artists including Ustad Amjad Ali Khan, Shri Papon, Shri Amaan Ali Bangash, Shri Ayaan Ali Bangash, Smt. Mangli, Shri Raghu Dixit, Smt. Pratibha Singh Baghel, and the duo Sourendro-Soumyojit, along with performances by school children of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, which mesmerised the large gathering.

Earlier, in his welcome address, Brigadier (Retd.) R.S. Chhikara, Chairman of the Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose-INA Trust, expressed his happiness at being part of the Parakram Diwas celebrations marking the 129th birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. He highlighted Netaji's unparalleled contribution to India's freedom struggle and lauded the enthusiastic participation of the large gathering at Netaji Stadium. A grand Drone show was organised featuring hundreds of drones creating vibrant shapes in the sky highlighting the country's freedom movement. Meanwhile, a national seminar on visions of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose will be held at ANRC, Anthropological Survey of India, Sri Vijaya Puram on Jan. 24.

Further, as part of the Parakram Diwas celebrations, the National Archives of India is organising a special exhibition titled "Subhash Abhinandan" at the ITF Ground, Sri Vijaya Puram, and at NSCB Island. The exhibition pays a heartfelt tribute to the life, ideals, and indomitable spirit of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, bringing alive his courage, sacrifice, and vision that continue to inspire generations.

Further, the mega exhibition at the ITF Ground on January 24 and 25 on Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, will also feature folk performances from different regions of the country. Visitors will also be able to experience a rich variety of island cuisines and a vibrant display of traditional handicrafts by tribal artisans. A theatrical performance by the National School of Drama will also be staged on January 24.

District Administration (SA) evicts unauthorized encroachment & restores Govt. land at Ferrargunj Tehsil

Sri vijaya Puram, Jan. 23

In continuation to the eviction drive conducted earlier, the District Administration, South Andaman carried out further eviction operations today at Govindapuram and Shoal Bay villages of Ferrargunj Tehsil.

During the eviction drive, encroachments on Government land as well as on Government roads were removed with the assistance of Revenue field functionaries. The operation was conducted smoothly and in an orderly manner ensuring restoration of public property for its intended use.

As a result of the eviction drive, an area measuring approximately 0.20 hectares of Government land was retrieved and restored back to the Government. Further, obstructions on the Government road were completely cleared, facilitating free and safe movement of the public.

The District Administration reiterates its commitment to protect Government land and public infrastructure from unauthorized encroachments and appeals to the general public to refrain from illegal occupation of Government property. Such drives will continue in a sustained manner to ensure compliance with the law and to safeguard public interest.

In case of any inquiries/complaints, the general public can communicate with the District Control Room at the following numbers 03192-240127/ 238881/1070/9531888844 (Whatsapp). The identity of the person providing the information will be kept secret so as to protect the individual, a press release from DC (SA) said.

74th A&N Police Raising Day celebration concludes with cultural evening and Badakhana

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 23

A spectacular cultural evening featuring the traditional Badakhana was organized yesterday evening at the Police Lines, marking the grand culmination of the 74th Andaman & Nicobar Police Raising Day celebrations. The event unfolded as a vibrant celebration of talent, unity, and cultural harmony, filling the venue with colour, enthusiasm, and festive fervour.

The cultural programme showcased a rich and engaging repertoire of performances by A&N Police personnel. The evening commenced with an auspicious Ganesh Vandana dance performed by a young girl, setting a divine and energetic tone for the programme. This was followed by entertaining comedy skits woven with meaningful social messages and lawful action, soulful solo song and dance performances, and a powerful cultural drama that deeply resonated with the audience.

The spirited performance by the A&N Police Brass Band Team, whose musical excellence drew resounding applause. The audience was further captivated by an evocative Sufi medley and vibrant group dance performances by police teams, beautifully reflecting the rich cultural diversity and artistic excellence within the force. The function was graced by Shri Hargobinder Singh Dhaliwal, IPS, Director General of Police, Andaman & Nicobar Islands, along with senior officers. The DGP lauded the dedication, discipline, and creative spirit displayed by the performers and appreciated the collective efforts of all participants and organizers. He emphasized that such cultural engagements play a vital role in boosting morale, fostering teamwork, and nurturing a strong sense of belonging within the force.

Addressing the gathering, the DGP announced several significant welfare initiatives for police personnel, including the conferment of promotional ranks to lower-rank personnel upon completion of 15 and 25 years of service, clearance of pending welfare-related commitments, continued excellence in coastal security initiatives, and ongoing recruitment efforts to further strengthen the police force. He also commended the exemplary contributions and unwavering commitment of A&N Police personnel towards national service and internal security, a press release from SP (APU) said.
