Kidambi Srikanth enters Australian Open semis; Sindhu, Saina out

New Delhi, June 23

Kidambi Srikanth continued his brilliant run in the Australian Open Super Series and made it to the semi-final of the event defeating his Indian compatriot Sai Praneeth on Friday. The World No. 22 beat Praneeth in straight games 25-23, 21-17 in the all-Indian quarterfinal to reach his third consecutive Super Series semi-final.

However, Srikanth's triumph was followed by the disappointment of Saina Nehwal and PV Sindhu's exits from the tournament. Saina lost 17-21, 21-10, 17-21 to sixth seed Sun Yu of China in the women's singles quarter-final, after the fifth seed Sindhu went down 21-10, 20-22, 16-21 to World No. 1 Tai Tzu Ying of Chinese Taipei.

In a tight contest lasting 78 minutes, Saina lost in three games after levelling the match one-all with a convincing 21-10 win in the second game. She lost both the first and third games in identical 17-21 scoreline. The similarity didn't end there. Saina was leading at some points in both the games, before conceding the lead and the game. From 9-11 at mid-game break, Saina won eight of the next ten points to take a 17-13 lead but lost the first game 17-21. She started the second game aggressively and with eight consecutive points raced to 9-3 lead before sealing the game 21-10. But the decider was tight for both the shuttlers as they exchanged lead early in the game. Saina had a slender 15-13 lead, before the game and with it the match slipped from her. Earlier, in a hard-fought hour-long contest, Tzu Ying recovered tremendously against Sindhu after losing the first game rather comprehensively. Sindhu had shown signs of dominance in the first game, but Tzu Ying retaliated to justify her position as the World No. 1 in the next two. The second game went down to the wire, whereas the decider was sealed in Tzu Ying's favour after fatigue seemed to mar Sindhu's movement in the closing moments.

India will breach historical best FIFA ranking soon: Stephen Constantine

New Delhi, June 23

Indian football coach Stephen Constantine is sure that the side under him will breach the historical best FIFA ranking of 94 in the next few months, as he trains his guns on taking the country to a third Asian Cup.

Owing to seven international wins on the trot since last year, the Indian team is currently sitting at exactly 100th spot, and Constantine said by the time the Asian Cup qualifiers end in March next year they should be placed better than the 94th achieved in February 1996. "I am not very good at mathematics. But if we are 93, I would be the happiest man. That would be the historical highest. I am going to do it. I don't know if it will be on July 6 (next FIFA ranking date) but I am going to do it. I don't know if that (Kyrgyzstan win on June 13 in Asian Cup qualifiers) will push us that far but I hope to make history at the end of these qualifiers," Constantine told. India beat Kyrgyzstan on June 13 in Bangalore to place themselves on course to qualify for the Asian Cup in 2019. The qualifying round matches will continue till March next year. India's next match is against Macau on September 5. If India qualify for the 2019 Asian Cup, it will be only the third time they would make it to the flagship continental tournament after 1984 and 2011. When told that India used to be in the 20s among Asian countries but are now at 11th spot just below the likes of China and Qatar, Constantine said in a lighter vein, "Not in their lifetime (people must be thinking this can happen)."
