bringing India and Israel closer and for Indians visit to Haifa in 2018, the centenary year of Indian Heroism in Haifa. The Israel government still continues recognizing the contribution of war heroes through mention in its history textbooks and "Memorials". The ceremony was attended by Brigadier M.S. Jodha, the grandson of the man who went on to lead the horsemen. Brig Jodha along with an Indian delegation toured the city and visited areas in which his grandfather fought. A very informative presentation by Brig. MS Jodha on Haifa, enlightened the audience about the significance of the day.

Lt. General R N Singh quoted a few rare books on war history to make his point that Indian soldiers irrespective of caste and religion are the best and most dependable. Veteran journalist Prof Shivaji Sarkar, coordinator for the Haifa day celebration, said that few in the nation are aware of the history and the government would officially mark the occasion annually.

Parvesh Khanna, National General Secretary FANS proposed the vote of thanks. He noted in his speech that the soldiers fought valiantly for the British while they were engaged in a struggle against the British for independence.

FANS President Air Marshal (Retd) RC Bajpai, National General Secretaries Jasbir Singh, and Sarla Singh, Parvesh Khanna, National Organising Secretary Golok Behari Rai, National Treasurer Dr. Anil Agarwal and National Secretary & Media Head Anil Kaushik, were present at the occasion.
