Special drive by PBMC to catch stray cattle on city roads

Port Blair, Oct. 23
With the aim to upkeep the city, the PBMC is continuing its special drive to catch stray cattles in the city. Despite repeated appeal to owners of cattle to ensure their cattle do not roam the city freely, it is observed that many cattle are seen roaming around freely which not only poses threat to the commuters riding on four or two wheelers but also makes the city's ambience unappealing. During the drive conducted recently, stray cattles were caught from Aberdeen area by PBMC and were shifted to Cattle Pound. Penalties as per rules will be imposed upon the owners of cattle who turn up to claim them.
