3rd Test: Dry Mohali conditions give India further edge over England

New Delhi, Nov 25 Virat Kohli's Indian cricket team has a terrific chance to take an unassailable 2-0 lead over England in the best-of-five Test series with conditions in Mohali, venue for the third match, expected to assist spin. All signs from the PCA Stadium indicate that the surface will encourage turn - the last Test here was over inside three days, with spin claiming 34 of the 40 wickets to fall - because of a lack of thick grass cover, which leaves India at an advantage given how well R Ashwin, Ravindra Jadeja and Jayant Yadav bowled to England's batsmen in the second Test. India, ranked No 1 in the ICC Test championship, drew level with the previous second best record of 16 home Tests without defeat when they beat England by 246 runs in Visakhapatnam. In Mohali, where the weather is expected to be pleasant but the surface not kind to seam bowling, they will be confident of extending that streak to 17. England have plenty to do to challenge the home team and keep the series alive, not in the least finding batsmen who can cope with the spin challenge that Ashwin, Jadeja and Yadav pose. They have injury and form concerns, which is not a favorable space to be in when you're a team with aspirations of reclaiming No 1 but struggling to beat the conditions. Venue: PCA Cricket Stadium, Mohali Start date: November 26, 2016 Time: 09:30 IST Weather: Clear and pleasant conditions with a maximum temperature of 29 degrees Wridhiman Saha being rested as a precaution over a thigh strain has created an opportunity for Parthiv Patel to play a Test after more than eight years. Saha has most often batted behind R Ashwin at No 7, but with Parthiv could slot in higher. Being a left-hander adds dimension to the middle order. Bhuvneshwar Kumar's return will not automatically merit a return to the XI - he took six wickets in his last Test, against New Zealand in Kolkata - given the types of pitches on display in the series. India Probable XI: 1 Murali Vijay, 2 KL Rahul, 3 Cheteshwar Pujara, 4 Virat Kohli (capt), 5 Ajinkya Rahane, 6 Parthiv Patel (wk), 7 R Ashwin, 8 Ravindra Jadeja, 9 Jayant Yadav, 10 Umesh Yadav, 11, Mohammed Shami England Probable XI: 1 Alastair Cook, 2 Haseeb Hameed, 3 Joe Root, 4 Jos Buttler, 5 Moeen Ali, 6 Jonny Bairstow (wk), 7 Ben Stokes, 8 Chris Woakes, 9 Adil Rashid, 10 Gareth Batty, 11 James Anderson

Hong Kong, Nov 25 Olympic silver medallist P V Sindhu has entered the top 10 in the latest BWF world rankings. Sindhu, who clinched the China Open last week, jumped two places to grab the ninth spot. However, former World No. 1 Saina Nehwal has crashed out of the elite bracket. Saina who is on a comeback trail after recovering from a serious injury, slipped five places to 11th spot, owing to her first round exit at China Open. In the Destination Dubai Series Final, Sindhu is ahead of Saina by a few points and their performance at the ongoing Hong Kong Open will determine who qualifies for the prestigious tournament next month. At present, Sindhu has 38,490 points, while Saina is behind with 38,080 points. In men's singles, Kidambi Srikanth remains the best Indian men's shuttler at 12th spot. Ajay Jayaram jumped four places to reach the 19th spot, while H S Prannoy, improved by two spots, to climb to the 25th place.
