Indian boxers Vikas Krishan, Amit Panghal strike gold as Mary Kom settles for silver at Strandja Memorial

Sofia (Bulgaria), Feb 26
Vikas Krishan (75kg) and Amit Panghal (49kg) claimed gold medals but the celebrated MC Mary Kom (48kg) had to be content with a silver in the 69th Strandja Memorial boxing tournament for men and women.
India ended the tournament with a whopping 11 medals -- five from men and six from women boxers. In all, the contingent clinched two gold, three silver and six bronze medals. Amit, who fetched the top honours at last month's India Open, defeated Morocco's Said Mordajji to fetch the yellow metal.
The 23-year-old Haryana-boxer recovered from a sloppy start to out-manoeuvre Mordajji, who was taller and matched the Indian in pace but eventually fell short on accuracy. Vikas, on the other hand, eased past American Troy Isley. It was a morale-boosting performance for Vikas, who had been laid low by a hand injury for a few months.

What stood out was Vikas' vastly improved stamina and lucid foot movement. He was challenged quite aggressively in the final three minutes but kept his composure to pull the off win. Mary Kom, who came into the event in pursuit of a third consecutive gold medal after the Asian championships and the India Open, lost to Bulgaria's Sevda Asenova in a rather shocking verdict. It was a stunning result for Mary Kom, who dominated the bout against the local favourite. The Olympic bronze-medallist Indian was the one initiating any attack for most of the bout. In fact, she quite literally chased Asenova, who was content with occasional touches and back-paddling evasively. One such chase for getting a punch across by Mary Kom led to the boxers tumbling over each other. It came as quite a surprise when the judges ruled in the Asenova's favour, leaving the Indian corner stunned. Later in the men's competition, Gaurav Solanki (52kg) took the silver after losing a closely-contested bout to Ukraine's Dmytro Zamotava.

Sameer Verma stuns Jan O Jorgensen to lift Swiss Open title

Basel (Switzerland), Feb 26

The 23-year-old from Madhya Pradesh showed great anticipation and technique and added power to his smashes, bamboozling Jorgensen 21-15 21-13 in a lop-sided contest. Sameer, who had clinched the

Tejaswin Shankar raises the bar for himself, breaks own national high jump record

Ames, Feb 26
Apart from the technique tweak that has seen him fly higher over the bar, doing household chores is what the 19-year-old has learnt since shifting to the US on a four-year scholarship last year. At the Big 12 Indoor Athletics Championships in Ames, Iowa, his third competition since joining the Kansas State University, the Delhi lad broke his own national record (2.26m) with a leap of 2.28m, the effort getting him a bronze. Just last month in another indoor meet, he had a jump of 2.19m. The national record will enter the record books once the Athletics Federation of India ratifies it. Putting Shankar's jump into context, the 2.28m effort would have got him a silver medal in the 2014 CWG. Derek Drouin of Canada had taken the gold home with a 2.31m leap in Glasgow. Shankar believes that the reason for this sudden surge in his performance is the "major changes" he's made in his technique just five days before the competition.
