Vice President urges Indian diplomats to defend country's interest in turbulent world order

New Delhi, July 2
Vice President Shri Venkaiah Naidu urged Indian diplomats to defend country's interest in turbulent world order. He said this while addressing over 125 Indian Ambassadors and High Commissioners at his official residence in New Delhi yesterday. Minister of External Affairs, Smti Sushma Swaraj, Minister of State for External Affairs, Shri M.J.Akbar and the Foreign Secretary were also present on the occasion. Shri Naidu asked the diplomats to be agile and careful and defend the country's interests, leveraging India's moral and material strengths to influence the global discourse through carefully strategized diplomatic response. The Vice President elaborated that despite the acknowledged need for an Integrated World Order, new 'walls' are being erected to the free flow of goods and services and movement of people as well. He said this return to protectionism has the potential to adversely impact the global efforts for collective advancement. Shri Naidu referred to the enhanced global interest in India and urged the diplomats to convert this global enthusiasm about India into investments. He asserted that India has moral and material strength to influence global discourse.

CS releases 'Footprints'- Centenary Magazine of Govt. Boys' SSS

Lauds Boys' School's role in evolution of education in Isles

Port Blair, July 2

The Centenary Magazine of the Govt. Boys' Sr. Sec. School Port Blair, published by the Boys' School Alumni Association was released by the Chief Secretary, Shri Vikram Dev Dutt in the conference hall of Secretariat here today. The Magazine, titled 'Footprints', is a collection of memories and reminiscences gathered from various sources, penned by pioneers, who walked the corridors of the School at different stages of their lives.

Releasing the Magazine, the Chief Secretary expressed happiness over the compilation of the Magazine, which, he said, is a collection of the memories and experiences of the writers and contributors, who had their education in the School. He said, the history of this school is linked with the history of Port Blair as it is the history of evolution of education in the Islands. He informed that the contents in the Magazine will be integrated in the archive materials of the Islands. The Chief Secretary said that Boys' School has come a long way in educating Islanders. Many senior citizens, of whom many have held or are holding good positions in the society, are the products of the School, he said. This is the time for them to give back to the society, the Chief Secretary remarked. All the alumnus of the School have made a mark in the respective fields, he said. The Chief Secretary also assured to initiate and monitor the establishment of a museum and a multipurpose hall in the school. The foundation stone of the said museum has already been laid. The Chief Secretary also gave away awards to the best performer students of the School for the academic year 2017. Dr. Rohinder Lall, an alumnus of the School and a member of the Heritage Committee, A & N Islands, in his introductory address informed that the School is the oldest school in the Islands. He also stressed for establishment of a multipurpose hall for the School. Briefing the gathering about the Magazine, the Secretary, Boys' School Alumni Association, Shri Basudev Dass said the Magazine, compiled in English, Hindi and Urdu has gained a right to be kept in archives, libraries as also in the bookshelves of those, who would love to know the history of these Islands. The function concluded with the vote of thanks, proposed by Smt. N R Khan, Ex-Principal of the School.

ICC inducts legendary Rahul Dravid in the ICC Hall of Fame

Dublin, July 2
Former Indian Cricketer, Rahul Dravid was inducted into the International Cricket Council's (ICC) Hall of fame on Monday. The fourth highest run scorer in Test cricket, Dravid became the fifth Indian Cricketer to enter the ICC Hall of Fame. Praised as 'The Wall' of Indian cricket, Dravid was one of the finest Test cricketers in the world. He continues to serve Indian cricket as a Coach for India's Under-19 team and has been instrumental in nurturing young talents on the big stage. Dravid was also associated with the Delhi based franchise as a mentor, in the IPL but decided to part ways, after being accused of conflict interest. ICC mentioned Dravid as "a classical batsman with an outstanding defence. 'The Wall' is one of India's greatest-ever Test batsmen and among the all-time greats at No. 3 in Test cricket." A nightmare for the bowlers, Dravid played 164 Tests and 344 ODIs, scoring 13,288 and 10,889 runs respectively, and went on to earn praises from his teammates and opponents alike. In the video posted by ICC on Twitter, Rahul said, It was an honor for him to be inducted among the people he had looked up to in his journey as a cricketer. He later thanked his family, coach, colleagues and friends for all the support he received throughout his career. ICC also took to Twitter to post a Q&A session with Dravid to reminisce on his magnificent career. ICC had earlier tweeted about the announcement of induction for ICC Wall of Fame for three players, out of which Dravid is the first one. Dravid scored a remarkable 95 in his Test debut against England at the famous Lord's cricket ground in 1996. He played his last Test match against Australia at Adelaide in 2012. After two months Dravid announced his retirement from International Cricket with an impressive average of 52.31 in Test cricket.

Federer, Serena lead Wimbledon against World Cup

London, July 2
Roger Federer and Serena Williams bring the curtain up on Wimbledon on Monday with the All England Club confident their tournament can comfortably capture the imagination of a public distracted by the World Cup.

Federer, the record eight-time champion, opens proceedings on Centre Court against Serbia's Dusan Lajovic. Williams, meanwhile, has been shunted off to Court One where she tackles Dutch outsider Arantxa Rus.

The American returns to the tournament for the first time since claiming a seventh title in 2016 having missed last year to give birth to her daughter. "I think it remains a little bit nerve-racking. It's a big deal," said Federer on returning to Centre Court and who is marking the 15th anniversary of his first Wimbledon title in 2003.

Senior journalist Rajat Sharma becomes new president of DDCA

New Delhi, July 2
Senior journalist Rajat Sharma beat former cricketer Madan Lal by 517 votes to become the new president of Delhi and Districts Cricket Association (DDCA). The results of the DDCA polls were announced today and Sharma's group swept the elections winning all 12 seats. BCCI acting president CK Khanna's wife Shashi lost the vice-presidential battle against Rakesh Bansal, younger brother of former DDCA president Sneha Bansal. The defeat might prove to be the end of the road for Khanna in DDCA, where he enjoyed supreme power for nearly three decades.
