1st year MBBS topper Tasleen speaks to DT Says, success lies in hard work & perseverance

Port Blair, Aug 27

As Jesse Owens puts it "We all have dreams. But in order to make dreams come into reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline, and effort". 19 year old Tasleen Banu, who hails from Kanyapuram, has not only made her family proud of her indomitable spirit to translate the essence of hard work into a magnanimous result, she indeed proved that a person's background does not define the ladder of success.

Tasleen, who scored 92% (Science stream) in class XII CBSE Board examination 2015, thought she would not be able to pursue medicine, hailing from a poor financial background. But, as the saying goes, 'God helps those who help themselves', Tasleen's hard work paid off when she got the opportunity to pursue MBBS in ANIIMS here in the Islands itself.

The topper of 1st year MBBS examination having scored an astounding 77.3% with distinction in all three subjects- Anatomy, Physiology & Biochemistry, shared her experience with the DT Reporter in an interview recently. She said, "I am very happy because, it is not only my hard work but my parents' too". She also acknowledged the support received from the faculty of 1st year MBBS.

Speaking about her long cherished dream to pursue Medicines, which became a reality, Tasleen revealed that it was her father, Shri K.Khalid (employee at Agency House), mother Smti. Jameela Bibi (housewife) and her grandfather's wish that has led her towards becoming a doctor. An emotionally overwhelmed Tasleen revealed that despite financial constraint, her parents ensured her needs are met. "My parents are my idol because they have helped me a lot in pursuing my dream".

Expressing gratitude to the A&N Administration, a humble looking Tasleen said she is grateful to the Administration for having set up the Medical College, giving her and other students the opportunity to study medicine in Isles. She also expressed gratitude to the Director ANIIMS, Maj. Gen.R.P Choubey and Consultant, ANIMERS, Dr.A.K.Dutta for the support extended to her. (Contd. on last page)

Paes-Begemann make it to final of Winston Salem Open in a tense affair

Winston-Salem, Aug 27
Veteran Leander Paes brushed off the disappointment of Rio Olympics as he and his German partner Andre Begemann made it to the final of the ATP Winston-Salem Open beating Swede Robert Lindstedt and Pakistan's Aisam-ul Haq Qureshi in a close encounter.

The Indo-German pair won 1-6 7-6 10-4 courtesy super tie-break. The duo will be meeting Spain's Guillermo Garcia-Lopez and Finland's Henri Kontinen. The Spanish-Finn pair beat had an easy outing in the semi-finals beating Croatia's Mate Pavic and New Zealand's Michael Venus 7-6 6-3.

twice as they surrendered the first set 1-6. In the second set, Paes-Begemann did well to hold their serve before clinching the tie-breaker as the Indian legend and seven-time Olympian was again at his best at the net. Paes' experience and younger legs of 32-year-old Begemann came to the fore in the super tie-break as they converted the mini-breaks effectively to close in the match. Paes will be playing his first final of the season on ATP Tour. The 43-year-old legend, who has had to play a number of Challenger level tournaments this season, has seen his ranking plummet to 72. He won two titles - Biella (Italy) and Busan (Korea) -- on the Challenger circuit. Before this, reaching the semifinals of the Delray Beach Open with Jeremy Chardy was Paes' best show this season. They had lost to Mike and Bob Bryan.
