PIB launches Media Facilitation Portal for information on General Election 2024

New Delhi, Mar. 27

The Press Information Bureau has started a microsite, pib.gov.in/elect2024/index.aspx having several features as one stop facilitation portal for media persons reporting for General Election 2024. The portal has characteristics like a Digital Flip Book which encompasses various interesting analytics and data rich features. The media persons can utilize this information for writing their articles. Useful links are provided through which the journalists can navigate to relevant parts of Election Commission website.

Information about the National and State level Election Commission Officers has been given for easy approach. An Election Commission compendium of instructions including a media guide is made readily available. The media persons will be kept apprised of latest happenings.

Media urged to adhere to MCC for ...

(Contd. from page 1) publication in their respective media for better adherence to MCC. Strict action will be initiated against any violation of MCC by the Electronic & Social media platforms as per the norms of ECI. A Circular to all Electronic/ Print/ Social Media has already been issued requesting the Electronic, Print & Social media to adhere to the MCC in letter & spirit for the smooth conduct of Elections in ANIPC.

As per Supreme Court Order and Commission's subsequent instructions, Pre-certification has to be done before telecast/broadcast on TV /Cable Network/Cable Channels, Cinema Halls, Radio including private FM channels, audio-visual displays in public places, advertisements in e-newspapers, use of bulk SMS/voice messages, on social media and internet websites by any registered Political Party or by any group of Organization/ Association or by any Contesting Candidate/Individual and also for print media on pre poll and poll day.
