Training prog. on Output Outcome Monitoring Framework (OOMF) for officials of Planning / Statistics & Accounts Department gets underway

OOMF focuses on monitoring Govt. schemes & programmes to enhance accountability & transparency in public expenditure

Staff Correspondent Port Blair, June 27 A two days training programme on Output Outcome Monitoring Framework (OOMF) for officials of Planning/ Statistics and Accounts Department got underway at the auditorium of TGCE here today. Organized by the Planning Department in association with Development & Evaluation Office (DMEO), NITI Aayog, New Delhi, the training was inaugurated by the Secretary (Finance), Shri C. Arvind by lighting the traditional lamp as the chief guest in the presence of the Secretary (Planning), Shri Arjun Sharma. Addressing the gathering, the chief guest said that the Output-Outcome Monitoring Framework represents an important reform towards outcome-based monitoring which is a paradigm shift from measuring simply physical and financial progress, to a governance model based on outcomes. The framework endeavours to provide measurable indicators for achievement of scheme objectives, or the 'Outcomes', the Secretary added. The Secretary further stated that Output-

Interview of Secretary (Fisheries) broadcast through Akashvani Port Blair Secretary (Fisheries) outlines the fishery potential and infrastructures being created to strengthen fisheries sector in Isles

Port Blair, June 27 The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS has directed all Secretaries of the Departments concerned to give interviews in Akashvani Port Blair and Doordarshan (DD) and highlight the initiatives taken by the Departments involved in public delivery services to improve public delivery system, social infrastructure and social benefit schemes. The interview of Secretary (Fisheries), Shri G Sudhakar, IAS was broadcast through Akashvani Port Blair and the same is being reproduced in Q&A format for the wider reach of the people of A&N Islands.

Interviewer: Can you give a brief sketch of Potential Marine Fishery Resources which can be tapped from A&N Waters? Secretary (Fisheries): The Potential Marine Fish Resources in the waters of A&N Islands is estimated to be around 1.48 Lakh MT and the annual catch is 45,000 MTs (Approx.). At present there is lot of gap between availability and tapping of fishery resources in isles. Interviewer: Kindly explain about the availability of Tuna and its value in international market? Secretary (Fisheries): There is a potential of 60000 tons of tuna fish in A&N waters and approximately 3000 tons of tuna is being tapped at present. Yellow fin tuna and Big Eye Tuna are ideal for Sashimi and Sushi grade, which has good demand in International market. However, in A&N Islands there are no deep sea fishing vessels with on board processing facilities to exploit the Tuna resources. Interviewer: Why Reef fishes are considered as one of the important resources of Andaman and Nicobar Islands? Secretary (Fisheries): Reef & other fishes are considered as one of the important resources of Andaman and Nicobar Islands because of their abundant availability, free from diseases & pollution. Interviewer: Do you provide loan for post-harvest processing? Secretary (Fisheries): For the post harvest processing, backend subsidy is provided for setting up cold storages, ice-plants/factories and fish processing units under Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana. For the general fishermen, the rate of the backend subsidy is 40 percent while for fisherwomen and tribal fishermen, the rate of subsidy is 60 percent.

Interviewer: Do you give Letter of Permission (LOP) for capture and export of live groupers? Secretary (Fisheries): Live fishes are not exported to mainland at present. There is no Air and Sea connectivity to the nearest South Asian Countries for the direct export of live fishes. At present, the fishes are exported in chilled/frozen form to Chennai and Kolkata. Interviewer: What is the scope for inland fisheries in A&N Islands? Secretary (Fisheries): There is huge potential for fresh water fisheries, particularly in North & Middle Andaman and South Andaman. The main hurdle is the absence of Hatcheries and feed mills. The Department is trying its level best to promote local entrepreneurs and entrepreneurs from mainland for setting up the said facilities. Interviewer: What is the scope of Mariculture and brackish water aquaculture in these Islands? Secretary (Fisheries): There is immense scope of brackish water Shrimp farming and mud-carb fattening. The issue of Hatcheries and seed is the main problem and the Department is trying its level best to promote local entrepreneurs as well as entrepreneurs from mainland to set up such facilities. The Shrimp hatcheries and feed mills are capital intensive and also need technical expertise. At present, two entrepreneurs have started brackish water venture, one at Mannarghat and another at North & Middle Andaman District. Once the feed and seed issue is sorted out, brackish water shrimp farming can be taken up in Tsunami inundated lands and farms near Secretary (Fisheries) outlines the fishery ...

Interviewer: Can you explain about Cage Aquaculture and its potential?
Secretary (Fisheries): NIOT has undertaken a pilot project in cage culture. The transfer of technology to farmers has not started yet. As per the study of NIOT, there is immense scope of sea bass and other varieties including Tilapia through cage culture in calm water, bay water and inlets. This project is at its nascent stage. However, some farmers have shown their interest to receive the technology from NIOT.

Interviewer: Kindly elaborate about the infrastructure facilities available for the fishermen in all the three Districts?

Secretary (Fisheries): 17 Fish Landing Centers have been developed by the Department covering the three districts. Apart from this, ice plants, cold storages for preserving fish have been created. Zonal Fisheries Sub Stations are functioning wherein timely registrations of boats and license to fishermen are provided besides implementation of various subsidy and financial schemes.

Interviewer: Can you give a brief description about A & N Marine Fishing Regulation 2003?

Secretary (Fisheries): The Andaman & Nicobar Marine Fishing regulation - 2003 covers the fishing.

Interviewer: What are the prospects in Fisheries Sector and what is important for those who want to take up fishery activities?

Secretary (Fisheries): There is huge potential in the Fisheries Sector in A&N Islands especially for educated youth /entrepreneurs in brackish water aquaculture and deep sea tuna fishing.

Interviewer: What is UT Plan programme and how is it implemented here?

Secretary (Fisheries): Construction of boats, procurement of life saving appliances, assistance due to loss during disaster/natural calamities are covered under UT Plan Scheme. Assistance of 50 percent is provided to General category and 75 percent for ST category. Central Govt. is providing funds for the implementation of PMMSY under which there are different components for creation of infrastructure, assets, development of aquaculture ponds, boats, deep sea fishing boats, ice-factories & cold storages and setting up fish kiosks. Under this scheme, 40 percent and 60 percent subsidy is provided to the eligible beneficiaries.

Interviewer: What is 'Blue Revolution' and how many schemes are implemented under this? Is PMMSY part of this?

Secretary (Fisheries): Since the announcement of the PMMSY scheme, all the activities of 'Blue Revolution' have been brought under PMMSY. The basic motto of PMMSY scheme is to increase fish production by modernising the fish crafts and fishing techniques, providing post harvest cold chain infrastructure and developing the Inland Aquaculture & fishery culture activities and mariculture activities. Under this scheme, for the first time in last three years, two farmers have started inland fresh water hatcheries in North & Middle Andaman. Even though it is a small step nevertheless, it is a good first step.

Interviewer: How youth are motivated towards fishery sector?

Secretary (Fisheries): Regular awareness programmes are conducted in fishing villages to motivate youth to take up fishery related activities. Scheme under PMMSY and UT Plan are being popularised among youth and fishermen. There are different components viz. acquisition of deep sea fishing vessels, establishing fish kiosks, establishment of fish value and processing units, setting up of cold storages, insulated refrigerated vehicles etc. for which awareness is created in fishing villages and clusters. Pamphlets with detailed information about the different components of PMMSY printed in five languages viz. Telugu, Tamil, Bengali, English & Hindi are distributed for the better understanding of the common fishermen. The Fisheries Department has prepared a schedule through its local Fisheries Inspectors, AFDS and Sagar Mitras to conduct awareness programmes in all the 169 fishing villages and clusters spread over the length and breadth of A&N Islands.

Interviewer: What is being done to develop more skilled and technically sound manpower?

Secretary (Fisheries): For different types of fishing activities like open sea cage culture, fresh water fish rearing, ornamental fish breeding, hygienic handling of fishes, engine repair etc., the Fisheries Department conducts various training programmes at regular intervals in co-ordination with Institutes like NIOT, CIARI, FSY, MPEDA, CFMRL.

Interviewer: Is there any proposal for making a fishing boat building yard?

Secretary (Fisheries): The proposal for establishing a 'Fishing Boat Repairing Yard' in A&N Islands is in its nascent stage. The Fisheries Department has identified a land and Ministry has been requested to instruct Central Institute of Coastal Engineering for Fishery (CICEF), to conduct a study & submit a report and prepare DPR in this matter.

Interviewer: What is being done to provide training to fishermen and also to the staff to cope up with the advancement of technology in the field of fishing?

Secretary (Fisheries): The Staff and fishermen are sent to mainland for training. Besides this, experts from CMFRI, NIOT and MPEDA come to Port Blair to train our staff and fishermen. Fishermen from all the 3 Districts are selected for training at mainland.

Interviewer: How many vacancies are there in the Department and is there any plan to fill up these posts?

Secretary (Fisheries): Altogether, 34 vacancies will be filled in the Fisheries Department and the recruitment process is underway.

Interviewer: What is the future plan to strengthen Fisheries Sector in Isles?

Secretary (Fisheries): Our future plan is to concentrate on deep sea fishing, brackish water aquaculture and sea cage culture. Fisheries Department is concentrating in these areas from catch to processing with high quality standards and with hygienic post cold harvest set up by involving the private sector participation to boost export. This initiative will ultimately provide employment to local youth and lead to inclusive growth in Isles.

Interviewer: What is being done to motivate unemployed youth to take up fishing as a self venture?

Secretary (Fisheries): There is immense scope and opportunities for the youth in sea food and marine food processing and deep sea fishing in A&N Islands. After getting training by availing Department schemes, the Youth can take up fishery related activities. The youth and fishermen can approach the Department for availing the benefits under various fishery related schemes being implemented in Isles. The fishermen/entrepreneurs should concentrate more on deep sea fishing, fresh water fish culture and brackish water aquaculture as it has good potential.
