

Cabinet approves Dearness Allowance to Central Government Employees and Dearness Relief to Pensioners

New Delhi, Oct. 28 (PIB) The Union Cabinet chaired by the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi today has approved to release an additional instalment of Dearness Allowance (DA) to Central Government employees and Dearness Relief (DR) to pensioners w.e.f.

01.07.2026 representing an increase of 3% over the existing rates of 60% of the Basic Pay/Pension, to compensate against price rise. The combined impact on the exchequer on account of increase in both Dearness Allowance and Dearness Relief would be Rs.10,016.10 crore per annum. This will benefit about 48.54 lakh Central Government employees and 68.71 lakh pensioners. This increase is in accordance with the accepted formula, which is based on the recommendations of the 7th Central Pay Commission.

Former Union Minister, Shri Kaushal Kishore Ji today paid a courtesy call on the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram.

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor reviews departmental progress and preparations for 'Janta Darshan' at Lok Niwas

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 28 Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji held a review meeting of all departments today at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram, to assess the progress of various works and review compliance with directions issued earlier. During the meeting, progress reports were reviewed, and the concerned departments were directed to expedite the disposal of pending matters.

The meeting was attended by the Chief Secretary, Shri Gyanesh Bharti, the Director General of Police, the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests, Secretaries of all departments and other senior officers.

It was emphasised during the meeting that all departments must regularly review the progress of their respective works and ensure that matters concerning public interest are addressed without any undue delay.

Subsequently, the Secretary to the Lieutenant Governor's Secretariat held a meeting at Lok Niwas with the Special Secretary, Officer on Special Duty and other officers and staff. During the meeting, directions were issued to ensure compliance with various instructions within the stipulated timelines.

The meeting also reviewed preparations for the forthcoming 'Janta Darshan' programme. Necessary directions were issued to ensure its smooth, systematic and successful conduct, and responsibilities were assigned to the concerned officers for the timely and seamless completion of all necessary arrangements, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor directs Departments to curb black marketing & ensure readiness of emergency services during Diwali

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 28

On the auspicious occasion of Diwali, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, has directed the concerned departments to ensure that prices of all Diwali-related items, including earthen lamps (diyas), firecrackers, puja materials and other essential commodities, remain under control in the market.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor has issued clear instructions that strict action, including penalties as prescribed under the rules, must be taken against any trader or shopkeeper found selling goods at prices higher than the prescribed rates. The concerned departments have been directed to conduct regular inspections and surveys in markets to ensure that the general public does not face any inconvenience.

Further, to prevent adulteration in sweets and other food items during Diwali, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor has directed the Food Safety Department to conduct special inspection drives and take stringent action against those found indulging in adulteration.

To deal with any untoward incident or emergency during Diwali, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor has directed medical officers and staff of the Health Department to remain alert and available with the necessary medical services. This is to ensure that immediate medical assistance is provided to persons affected by burn injuries or other accidents.

Similarly, the Fire Services Department has been directed to remain vigilant and keep the necessary firefighting teams and equipment ready to respond promptly to any fire incident or other emergency.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor has also directed the concerned departments to hold meetings with shopkeepers and traders' associations and communicate the necessary guidelines. He emphasised the need for coordinated efforts to ensure fair prices, food safety and public safety in the markets.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor directed all concerned departments to implement these instructions in earnest and give special attention to ensuring public convenience, safety and health during Diwali, enabling all citizens to celebrate the festival in a safe and joyous atmosphere, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor launches 'TB-Free Workplace Initiative' at Lok Niwas

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 28

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Dinesh Sharma Ji, today launched the 'TB-Free Workplace Initiative' at Lok Niwas, Sri Vijaya Puram. On the occasion, the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor highlighted the importance of integrating TB awareness, screening and preventive healthcare into workplaces. The initiative aims to encourage employees to actively participate in efforts towards TB elimination and create a supportive environment for the early detection and treatment of the disease.

The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor also administered the 'TB-Free India Pledge' to all present. The participants pledged to raise awareness about tuberculosis, support affected individuals and families, facilitate access to healthcare services and contribute towards achieving the national goal of TB elimination.

A presentation by the Health Department highlighted the progress achieved by the Andaman and Nicobar Islands under the TB-Free India Campaign. According to the data presented, 100% mapping of the identified target population has been completed, while 38 Gram Panchayats and 18 tribal villages were declared TB-free in 2025. These achievements underscored the importance of sustained community participation and coordinated public health action.

As part of the initiative, screening for tuberculosis (TB) and non-communicable diseases (NCDs) was also conducted for employees. This further emphasised the importance of preventive healthcare, early detection and timely medical intervention.

The launch of the TB-Free Workplace Initiative at Lok Niwas marks a significant step towards strengthening workplace-based screening and awareness activities across the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

The Commissioner-cum-Secretary (Health), Secretary (Health), other officers and employees of Lok Niwas were present on the occasion, a press release from Lok Niwas said.

Chief Secretary inaugurates day long workshop on 'Preventive Vigilance and Capacity Building' organized as part of Vigilance Awareness Week

Emphasizes on preventive vigilance rather than punitive vigilance

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 28

The Vigilance Awareness Week is celebrated every year across India, in the week in which the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel falls with the aim of fostering awareness and promoting integrity and transparency in public administration through awareness programmes and preventive vigilance initiatives. This year, the Vigilance Awareness Week 2026 is being observed from 26th October to 1st November 2026 with the theme 'Probity for Prosperity'.

As part of the Vigilance Awareness Campaign, the Vigilance Department of Andaman Nicobar Administration organized a one-day workshop for Officers & Staff of Andaman & Nicobar Administration on 'Preventive Vigilance and Capacity Building' today at Tagore Govt. College of Education, Sri Vijaya Puram. About 200 officers and officials attended the workshop.

The Workshop was inaugurated by Shri Gyanesh Bharti, IAS, Chief Secretary/Chief Vigilance Officer, A&N Administration.

Addressing the gathering, Chief Secretary emphasized on preventive vigilance rather than punitive vigilance. He urged that the most important approach in fight against corruption has to be that the public interface should be totally dispensed with and all services & schemes provided by the Government Departments should be made online and monitored with objectivity by analyzing the time taken and the service delivered parameters.

He also emphasized that equally important are one's own commitments to perform his or her official duty on time with absolute integrity, transparency and accountability. He laid stress on the objectives of good governance in a sustainable way, for which it is very important for officers and staff to refresh and reorient to the various procedures, rules, instructions of Govt. of India and CVC Guidelines. He also advised the Inquiry Officers and the Presenting Officers, who also attended the workshop, to complete the pending Departmental Inquiries within the stipulated timelines, for quick disposal and decisions. He urged for adopting a mission mode to clear the pendency.

The Chief Secretary urged for promoting a culture of preventive vigilance and said that the true success of vigilance lies not merely in identifying corruption after it occurs, but in creating systems and practices that prevent it from occurring in the first place. He asked the participants to become an active ambassador of vigilance by not only committing to work as per the rules and procedures and encouraging ethical practices within their respective areas of responsibility, but also to make other colleagues and staff aware about the importance of preventive vigilance and the

The Anti-Corruption Unit explained the procedural aspect of Prevention of Corruption cases, Permissions for Investigation and Prosecution Sanction under Section 17 and 19 of PoC Act, 2018.

The workshop was targeted for imparting training and capacity building of officers including the Inquiring Authorities, Presenting Officers and other administrative officials of various departments on vigilance matters and other components of preventive vigilance.

The Workshop included interactive sessions on other relevant topics of Preventive Vigilance by way of IT interventions & initiatives, drafting of charge sheet, role of Inquiring Authorities & Presenting Officers in departmental inquiries, vigilance clearance by various resource persons including retired Government servants.

The Workshop witnessed enthusiastic and interactive participation by the stakeholders and concluded with a quiz exercise on the topics which were part of the Workshop. The participants of the Workshop reaffirmed their commitment to upholding integrity, transparency, efficiency and accountability in discharging their official responsibilities, a press release from Joint Secretary (Vigilance) said.

importance of integrity and accountability.

On the occasion, Dr. Sachin Shinde, the Commissioner-cum-Secretary (Vigilance) highlighted the need to develop new result-oriented approaches and to continuously identify and address systemic gaps. He emphasized the role of learning and relearning in understanding the complex procedures of vigilance matters so that a decision can be taken on facts of the case and inquiry is concluded without any harassment and unnecessary delays.

The Director, Central Vigilance Commission, Shri Dhananjay Kumar Ranjan spoke at length on topics of vigilance angle involved in complaints and consequent actions, requirement of advices from CVC. He familiarized the participants with the steps and procedures those are to be followed in handling various complaints, protection of Whistle Blowers and Public Interest Disclosure and Protection of Informers provisions.

DC (N&MA) holds Revenue Camp Court at Diglipur under 'Sampark Se Samadhan - Prashasan Gaon Ki Ore' initiative

Mayabunder, Oct. 28

A Revenue Camp Court-cum-Public Grievance Redressal Programme was conducted today at the Office of the Assistant Commissioner, Diglipur, under the initiative 'Sampark Se Samadhan - Prashasan Gaon Ki Ore', under the leadership of Shri Sushant Padha, Deputy Commissioner, N&M Andaman District, in the presence of the Assistant Commissioner, Diglipur. The programme witnessed the participation of representatives of Panchayati Raj Institutions, officers from various line departments and members of the general public.

During the programme, PRI representatives and members of the public raised a range of issues concerning agriculture, electricity supply, road connectivity, drainage, transportation, public amenities and land-related matters. The Deputy Commissioner heard the grievances and interacted with the officers concerned, emphasizing the importance of interdepartmental coordination, prompt action and time-bound resolution of public grievances.

As part of the Revenue Camp Court, cases pertaining to land subdivision, name correction and mutation were taken up and disposed of on the spot, facilitating the speedy matters and providing immediate relief to the applicants.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic public participation, with approximately 350 participants, including PRI representatives, Heads of Offices, departmental officials and members of the general public, attending the camp. The substantial turnout reflected the growing public engagement with the initiative and the importance of bringing administrative services closer to the people.

The Revenue Camp Court reaffirmed the District Administration's commitment to ensuring accessible, transparent and citizen-centric governance. Through the "Sampark Se Samadhan - Prashasan Gaon Ki Ore" initiative, the Administration continues to strengthen direct engagement with citizens, address local issues at the grassroots level and facilitate the timely delivery of public services and effective redressal of grievances, a press release from DC, N&MA said.
