PM launches Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan Yojana in Gandhinagar, Gujarat

Gandhinagar, Mar 5
 Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today launched the Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan (PM-SYM) Yojana at Vastral in Gandhinagar, Gujarat. The national pension scheme for workers and labourers of unorganised sector was announced in the interim budget in February this year.

It will provide monthly pension of 3000 rupees to the employees of unorganised sector after 60 years of age. Shri Modi also distributed the PM-SYM pension cards to select beneficiaries. Speaking on this occasion, the Prime Minister said that launching of Shram Yogi Man Dhan Yojana is the extension of various social security schemes implemented during the last five years. He said, 42 crore workers from un-organised sectors are eligible for this pension scheme by contributing 55 rupees to 200 rupees monthly. The Prime Minister said, the NDA government has ensured affordable

Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan Yojana launched in Isles Lt. Governor urges beneficiaries to enroll in the scheme for a secured future

Port Blair, Mar 5

The Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan (PM-SYM) Yojana, the National Pension Scheme for workers and labourers of unorganised sector was launched at the state level by the Lt. Governor, A&N Islands, Admiral DK Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.) and Vice Chairman of Islands Development Agency in the auditorium of Tagore Govt. College of Education here this morning. The scheme was also launched at the National Level by the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi at Vastral in Gandhinagar, Gujarat, which was screened live for the gathering at the auditorium. The Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Chetan B. Sanghi, State President BJP, Shri Vishal Jolly, Adhyaksh, ZPSA, Shri Sanjib Kumar Mandal, Secretary (Labour), Shri D. Manikandan, officers of the Administration, beneficiaries from various unorganized sectors and students were present on the occasion.

Addressing the gathering, the Lt. Governor expressed happiness in being part of the launch of this very important scheme for the workers of unorganized sector here in A&N Islands. He remarked that the launch of Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan (PM-SYM) Yojana is indeed a historic one, because people working in the organized sector don't have to worry about financial security once they retire, but there are workers belonging to unorganized sector such as ASHA, Anganwadi, MGNREGA and other trades, whose contribution towards the development of the country is very important, but, so far, nothing concrete has been done for their long term social security. As long as these workers from the unorganized sector have jobs in their hands, they get their salaries. These workers do not healthcare and insurance protection cover for the poor and labourers. Shri Modi reiterated that the NDA government is committed for the empowerment of farmers and labourers while the only motto of opposition is to dislodge his government. Earlier, addressing a gathering at Annapurna Dham Temple at Adalaj in Gandhinagar district this morning, the Prime Minister said, our country is secure in the hands of farmers and soldiers as we are getting food and security from them. He said that religious, cultural and community institutions can play a significant role in conserving environment and social change.

Shri Modi expressed happiness that religious center like Annapurna Dham is becoming the hub of education and cultural activities. He appealed the trustees of the center to distribute saplings as Prasad to the visitors of the temple to preserve the environment. Shri Modi said, Annapurna Dham should give our society the strength to ensure there is gender equality and prosperity for everyone. He said, India has a rich history of societies rising to the occasion and taking the lead when it comes to solving the challenges every era has faced.

He urged the people of Gujarat to work on food processing saying such value addition will help both farmers and industries. Referring to the world's tallest statue of Sardar Patel- the Statue of Unity, the Prime Minister said that the leader like Sardar Patel should not be identified by community or caste as he is the tallest national leader of our country. Shri Modi performed the Pranpratishtha of Annapurna Mata at the temple and also laid the foundation stone for Shikshan Bhavan and Vidhyarthi Bhavan.

have any pension benefit nor any provident fund related benefit, said the Lt. Governor adding that with the launch of this scheme, their long term social security has been assured.

The Lt. Governor further remarked that the scheme has many beneficial features such as enrollment of a person from a young age with a contribution as little as Rs. 55 per month only and the Govt. will also deposit equal matching share in the pension account of the worker every month. Once the person attains the age of 60, this pension yojana shall provide them an assured monthly pension of Rs. 3000/- from the age of 60 years on a monthly contribution of a small affordable amount during their working age, said the Lt. Governor. Further, the scheme also has other special features in which it can be converted to family pension. Another important feature of the scheme is that it provides the workers, the opportunity to resume their contribution after a break period, said the Lt. Governor.

The Lt. Governor stated that it is estimated that about 42 crore workers from unorganized sector contribute towards the development of the country. As per the Economic census of 2013-14, in A&N Islands about 40 to 50 thousand people contribute towards the development of the country and they belong to the unorganized sector, said the Lt. Governor adding that through this scheme, the future need of those belonging to the unorganized sector can be fulfilled with the minimum assured monthly pension of Rs. 3000/- after attaining the age of 60 years. The Lt. Governor exhorted all to create awareness among the masses about this social security scheme/ welfare scheme so that the benefit of the scheme reaches the beneficiaries.

The Lt. Governor also informed that so far, 2500 registration has been done while the total population of those belonging to the unorganized sector stand between 40 to 50 thousand. He urged all to come forward and enroll themselves in the scheme and ensure timely contribution so that their future can be secured and the challenges that lie ahead can be dealt with.

The Lt. Governor also distributed enrollment cards to 12 beneficiaries belonging to various unorganized sectors in A&N Islands.

Speaking on the occasion, the Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray stated that the Govt. is committed towards the welfare of the poor. He said, today, for the first time in the country, a very noble initiative has been launched by the Govt. for the workers belonging to the unorganized sector. About 90% of the workers belong to the unorganized sector while the remaining 10% are from the organized sector, said the MP. He also elaborated on the features of the PM -SYM Yojana and urged the beneficiaries to make best use of the scheme for the welfare of their families. He expressed happiness that the scheme has been launched exclusively to facilitate the workers of unorganized sector.

The Member of Parliament also highlighted about the various initiatives of the Govt. towards improving the health of the Anganwadi children and the workers. For the first time milk and mid day meals are given in Anganwadi Centres in A&N Islands, he said. He also mentioned that apart from this, the Administration is also providing old age pension, widow pension, pension for disabled to the beneficiaries of this Island and remarked that the A&N Islands provides the highest pension amount among any other States in the country. The MP also lauded the Lt. Governor, the Chief Secretary and the Labour Department for extending support to the poor by taking up various welfare schemes of the Govt. and implementing it for the benefit of the poor. The MP stated that the CSCs are working efficiently by facilitating the day to day need of the people.

In his address, the Chief Secretary, Shri Chetan. B. Sanghi remarked that the launch of this particular scheme is very important since many people were after Govt. jobs as it offers various benefits and social security to the workers. Now, the aim of the Govt. is to ensure that similar benefit must also be made available to those belonging to the unorganized sector so that their future can be secured once they attain the age of 60 and are no longer in a position to work, said the Chief Secretary. The threshold of this pension scheme is that it allows a person to contribute minimum amount of Rs. 55 since it has just been launched. However, if a worker wishes to contribute more, they can do so and will be getting more pension. He also informed that in the long run, the State Govt. also have the freedom to contribute from their state fund towards improving the scheme further.

The Chief Secretary further informed that the scheme aims at facilitating those unorganized sector workers with monthly pension of Rs. 3000/- once they attain the age of 60 years and are no longer in a position to earn their livelihood. He urged all workers of the unorganized sector to enroll themselves so that the objective of the scheme can be achieved and the beneficiaries will be able to make use of the scheme in taking care of their family responsibility and fulfill their needs in the long run. He said, in A&N Islands as many as 2500 people have been enrolled and effort must be made to ensure that more beneficiaries are enrolled under this scheme in the coming days.

Earlier, welcoming the gathering, the Secretary Labour, Shri D. Manikandan remarked that this day marks an important day in the lives of unorganized sector workers as on this day, Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan Yojana has been launched at the National Level by the Prime Minister. In line with this, the Govt. of India has also urged all the States and UTs to organize similar event at the State and UT level, to recognize the contributions made by the workers of unorganized sector towards the development of the country, said the Secretary. He further stated that the Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maandhan Yojana is one of the most important pension programmes among many other pension programmes presently being implemented in the country. The scheme takes care of the unorganized sector, particularly their livelihood in the later stage of their life. This scheme is based on simple certification procedure and hassle free procedures are being adopted so that every unorganized sector workers gets a minimum pension of Rs. 3000/- per month starting from the age of 60, the Secretary added.

Shri Manikandan further remarked that assuring minimum pension in the present economic world is not an ordinary one; however, the Govt. has taken a stand today to provide assured minimum pension to the unorganized sector workers as they are equally contributing to the Nations' development like any other organized sector workers.

The Secretary also informed that to facilitate enrollment of workers in this scheme, a special camp has been set up where the CSCs are being made nodal point for registration of beneficiaries. The special camp has been functioning since the last one week, with the help of the Labour Department. He also informed that two workers belonging to the unorganized sector from the Islands have been sent to participate in the launch of the scheme at National Level today, in which they will receive the pension cards from the hands of the Prime Minister and also interact with him.

The programme culminated with the vote of thanks proposed by the Labour Commissioner, A&N Administration, Shri Madhu Sudhan Baidya.
